Mend, Pack for Kentucky Mission

EWING — The Women's Missionary society of the Riverside Free Methodist church went to Oakdale on Friday where members met for an all-day work session at the home of Mrs. Fay Primus.

Mending and packing boxes of clothing for a Kentucky mission were a part of the activities. A covered dish dinner was served at noon.

The business meeting was in charge of Mrs. Primus and was opened by prayer by Mrs. Howard Miller. Roll call was answered with a favorite verse of scripture by the 10 members present. November 11 was set for another work day session at the home of Mrs. Fay Doty in Ewing, when members will complete the boxes of clothing for the Kentucky mission. Two dozen cookies will also be brought by each member. There will be packed and sent to the Coe home for orphans in Kansas City, Mo.

The lesson on foreign missions in various countries was also conducted by Mrs. Primus.

Prairie Fire Interferes with Party, Films

Irvin Forbes Burned Fighting Blaze

AMELIA — Mrs. Mary LaFoy and her house guest, Mrs. Julia Samples of Atkinson, were surprised Tuesday afternoon, October 13, when several ladies from Amelia gathered to spend the afternoon with them.

Those present were Mrs. Ralph Rees, Mrs. Alice Prewitt, Mrs. Julia White, Mrs. Gertie Adair, Mrs. Delia Ernest, Mrs. Hattie Pierce, Mrs. Mae Sageser and Florence Lindsey.

Everyone enjoyed the party but all were too excited to enjoy the lunch after they received reports of the prairie fire which was raging several miles south of Amelia.

The show which was presented at the school Tuesday evening, October 13, and sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service was not very well attended due to the fact that most every man was fighting the prairie fire. Irvin Forbes was burned slightly while fighting the fire when the tractor and plow he was driving got stuck.

Banana Split Pie wins $3,000

... top junior prize in famous Pillsbury Bake-Off

A salute to the $3000 prize winner! Lucky teen-ager, Janet Winquest of 703 Eighth Avenue, Holdrege, Nebraska, won $3000 for her Banana Split Pie in the fourth Grand National Pillsbury Recipe and Baking Contest.

Banana Split Pie

Banana Filling

1 cup sifted Pillsbury's Best Enriched Flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup shortening
 3 to 4 tablespoons cold water

1. Sift together flour and salt.
 2. Cut in shortening until particles are the size of small peas.
 3. Sprinkle water over mixture, tossing lightly with fork until dough is moist enough to hold together. Form into a ball.
 4. Roll out on floured pastry cloth or board to circle 1 1/2 inches larger than inverted 8-inch pie pan. Fit loosely into pie pan. Fold edge to form standing rim. Flute. Prick crust with fork.
 5. Bake in a very hot oven (450°F.) about 10 to 12 minutes, or until done. Cool.

1/2 cup butter or margarine
 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
 2 eggs
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 3 medium-sized, ripe bananas*
 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
 1 square (1 ounce) chocolate, grated
 1/2 cup walnuts, chopped

*Use fully ripe bananas... yellow peel flecked with brown

1. Beat butter or margarine until creamy. Add confectioners' sugar gradually, beating until light and fluffy.
 2. Add eggs, one at a time, beating 3 minutes after each addition. (With electric mixer use medium speed.) Blend in vanilla.
 3. Peel and slice 2 bananas crosswise. Sprinkle with lemon juice.
 4. Fold chocolate and bananas into sugar mixture. Turn into cooled, baked 8-inch pie shell. Sprinkle with walnuts. Chill 2 to 3 hours.
 5. Just before serving, peel and slice a fully ripe banana and arrange on top of pie.
