Pick, Crib Corn for Lynch Widow

Mrs. Spencer's Sons in Service
 LYNCH—A community husking bee was held at the Mrs. Albert Spencer farm, northeast of Lynch, on Thursday, October 15. Twenty-seven men with tractors, nine pickers (five one-row and four two-row) and three elevators picked 75 acres of corn which averaged about 60 bushels to the acre. The corn was also cribbed.
 Twelve women came with well-filled baskets and served dinner and lunch. The men finished picking about 5 p.m.
 Mr. Spencer died several weeks ago, after a short illness and both of their sons—Arden and Calvin—are in military service.
