Cpl. Robert Wells Honored, Birthdays Noted at Redbird

REDBIRD—A farewell party honoring Cpl. Robert Wells and also for the birthday anniversaries of Etta Mae, Delores and Wilmer Wells, was held Friday evening in the Clifford Wells home. A large crowd of neighbors and relatives was present to enjoy cards and a social evening. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served for lunch.

Other Redbird News
The Scott Community club met Friday evening in the Harvey Krugman home with 11 members and their families present. Three members—Lila Hull, Joy Wilson and Alberta Hull—were absent. During the business meeting plans were made for the project club and the Redbird 4-H club to meet together at the Scottville hall Friday evening, November 6, to see films shown by Neal Dawes. Two September birthday gifts were received by Mrs. Luber and Willa Schollmeyer from their secret pals, Emma Krugman demonstrated basket weaving to the group and some very artistic baskets were made.

A luncheon of sandwiches, cake, pickles and coffee was served. Mr. and Mrs. Robert White and Sharlene of O'Neill and the Bill Wilson family were Sunday visitors in the Ray Wilson home. Beverly Carson and pupils of the Osborn school will have a program and box social Friday night, November 13. Everyone is invited. Mrs. Fay Pinkerman spent several days last week at Inman with the Kenneth Coventry family. Claude Pickering and boys attended the Spencer - Verdigré football game at Spencer Friday evening. Guests at an oyster supper in the Pat Osborn home last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Euss Greene and Mr. and Mrs. George Courtney of Lynch. Mrs. Anna Carson attended the tea and travel talk by Miss Elja McCullough at the Methodist church Saturday at O'Neill. Shirley Slack and Delores Melior accompanied Mrs. Guy Hull to study center at O'Neill Saturday. The Bob Phelps family of Minnesota visited his sister, Mrs. Bill Conard and other relatives last week. Lila Hull, Joan Rosicky, Pauline Anderson and Velma Micanek attended a reading demonstration at Mrs. Lila Johring's school at Meek Friday. Bruce Schollmeyer was a Wednesday night, October 21, guest of Victor and DeLynn Pickering. Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hull Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Veldon Pinkerman and Veldon and Mrs. Fay Pinkerman. Mrs. Don Bare of Lynch visited a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Bill Wilson, and family. A reading demonstration with emphasis on phonics was given by Mrs. Willa Schollmeyer at her school Wednesday afternoon, October 21. Visiting teachers were Thelma Young, Diane Hoffman, Joyce Miller, Evelyn Rosengren, Beverly Carson, Shirley Slack, Evelyn Ruroede, Mrs. Florence Harris, Mrs. Martha Murphy and Mrs. Iva Brady. Miss Alice French was also present. Following a discussion period and exchange of ideas and patterns, Mrs. Schollmeyer served coffee and cup cakes.

Business Meeting—The Catholic Daughters of America will hold a business meeting on Tuesday, November 3, 8 p.m., at the Knights of Columbus hall.

Fractures Hip
Other Amelia Sick—AMELIA—Mrs. Belle Widman suffered a broken hip Monday evening, October 19, when she fell from the porch step at her home. She is in St. Anthony's hospital, O'Neill. Mrs. Widman broke her other hip several years ago. Mrs. Bertha Sammons has been having a siege of flu the past two weeks. She entered the hospital in O'Neill Saturday, October 24, with an infected throat. Jimmie Doolittle, son of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle, has been quite ill the past week. It was thought his trouble was bordering on rheumatic fever. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ragland went to Tilden Friday where Bill consulted a doctor. He planned to go to Omaha some time this week for further examination. He has been suffering with a back ailment. Mrs. Lee Gilman has been having quite a severe case of poison ivy.

Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carl and family of Omaha were last Thursday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wallen. Mr. Carl's brother, Rev. Kenneth Carl of O'Neill, was also a dinner guest. The Carls continued on to Colome, S.D., for the weekend, returning through here on Sunday.

Darlene Leiding of Norfolk was a Tuesday, October 27, visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Clark and family.

"We Say Thanks"

To All of You Who Helped to Make O'Neill's Second Annual PANCAKE DAY A SUCCESS

THANKS to the cooks, servers, dish washers, table cleaners and errand men. Especially, we thank Bennett Heriford of the M&M Cafe; Dean Jeffrey of Harding Creamery Co., both of whom worked harder and for longer hours than any others; special thanks, too, to the Knights of Columbus for use of their building and public address system.

WE WANT to thank the Municipal band, Jack Everitt, the O'Neill high trio (Evalyn Asher, Esther Kaiser and Frances Reimer), the trumpet trio (Duane Booth, Pat DeBolt and Evalyn Asher), the American Legion for use of chairs; the Legion auxiliary for use of tables; George Head for loan of a piano. Yes, thanks to all of you . . . individual business and professional firms . . . for your very splendid cooperation which made our work so much easier and more pleasant.
