Non-churchgoers wouldn't feel at home in heaven.
Some enjoy Christianity, others just endure it.

Scout Den Elects Officers
Scout den 2 met Wednesday, October 21, at Thompsons' home. New officers were elected: Denner, Terry Kurtz; assistant denner, Clarence Hill; news reporter, Jack Nelson; song leader, Gary Erewater; Scout leader, David Hanson. The flag salute was given. Games were played. The meeting was adjourned.—By Jack Nelson, news reporter.

Students Learn About Plaintiffs and Defendants
County Attorney William W. Griffin (background, facing camera) takes county government students deep into the vault in the office of Clerk of District Court Ira H. Moss and explains procedure of a civil law suit. To many students it was their first understanding of plaintiffs, defendants, dockets and other legal terminology. Left-to-right: Gary Small of Atkinson high, Patrick Lee of St. Joseph's hall, Ronald Wolfe of Inman, Mary Froelich of St. Mary's, Mr. Griffin, Raydean Kramer of Stuart, Sherry Stewart of Page, Dianne Baum of Ewing and Carolyn Lindberg of O'Neill high.—The Frontier Photo.

METHODIST (Emmet)
Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor
There are three events each week in the life of your church that should be of interest to all. The first of these is the services on Sunday morning. At 9:45 a.m., each Sunday the adults and youth have worship services conducted by the pastor. The second of these is the church school. During the 9:45 hour the small children are receiving Christian training in the church school under the direction of Mrs. William Serek and Leah. Following the worship service the youth and adults have their church school. The third event each week is the Bible study on Wednesday at 8 p.m.
If it is impossible for you to come to the study, then invite the study to come to your home. They'll be glad to accept.
Have you listed your entries with the lay leader, G. O. ("Bud") Cole? The Lord's acre festival is to be held on Saturday, November 7. The white elephant sale will begin at 10 a.m., dinner at noon to 1:30 p.m., the address by James Bell of Bloomfield at 1:45 p.m., and the auction of the Lord's acre items will follow. During this time a bazaar will be in process in the sanctuary. If all the items are not sold by the time of the auction's closing, they too will be put on the block. Come, spend a day in Emmet!
