Young Adults Meet—INMAN

The young adult fellowship and members of the official board met Thursday night, November 5, at the church for a covered dish supper and business meeting. It was voted to insulate the ceiling and north wall of the church proper. Karl Keyes and Lew Kopecky were named to meet with representatives of the board of trustees to arrange for the insulating. It was also voted to turn the net profits from the festival over to the building fund treasurer. Plans were announced for a pancake supper to be served by the young adult fellowship November 20. The following committees were named: Mrs. Howard Jackson, general chairman, with Mrs. Lew Kopecky and Mrs. Herbert Nelson, assisting. Rev. Lisle Mewmam and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tompkins are members of the advertising committee.
