Weekly Market Report

The Atkinson Livestock Market

Atkinson, Nebr.

NOVEMBER 9 & 10 AUCTIONS

Cattle receipts for the two days totaled 4.716 head, of which 2,820 were calves at Monday's auction and 2,096 stockers and feeders at Tuesday's sale.

At Monday's calf sale trade was very uneven with prices mostly averaging 50 to 1.00 lower from last week's good market. This brought for choice steer calves from 19.00 to 21.00 with the bulk of the better kinds averaging from 18.00 to 19.00. Medium and plainer kinds at 15.00 to 17.00. Although a few outstanding loads of heifer calves sold at 17.00 to 17.50 the bulk of the better kinds sold from 14.50 to 15.50 a hundred.

Demand for both yearling steers and heifers was very reliable at Tuesday's auction with prices averaging fully steady with last week. Action was the best of the year with the auction moving rapidly and closing on a strong basis. More de-sirable yearling steers sold from 17.50 to 18.75, with even the plainer kinds meeting a good demand from 14.00 to 16.00 a hundred. Better feeding heifers were in broad demand from 15.00 to 16.25 a hundred with even plainer sorts showing some strength
