Evelyn Weichman, Marvin Johnson Wed
STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, November 14, when Miss Evelyn Weichman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Weichman of Stuart, was united in marriage with Marvin Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Stuart.
 The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Paschang at 9 a.m.
 The men's choir with Sister Vera at the organ sang the nuptial high mass.
 The bride's gown was fashioned of white slipper satin. The fitted bodice had a yoke of lace trimmed with rhinestones and there were lace inserts in the skirt which was finished with a five yard train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a pearl beaded tiara and she carried a bouquet of red carnations.
 Mrs. Glen Cadwallader served her sister as matron-of-honor and wore a floor-length gown of gold brocade taffeta while the bridesmaid, Miss Neva Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of green brocade taffeta. Both gowns were fashioned similar to that of the bride.
 They wore matching head pieces and carried bouquets of chrysanthemums.
 Kathryn Weichman, sister of the bride, and Dorothy Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, were flowergirls and wore blue taffeta dresses with net over skirts.
 The ushers were Ernest Armstrong of Gordon, friend of the bridegroom and Don Wewel, cousin of the bride.
 The wedding breakfast was served by the bride's parents at the home of the bride's parents and at 12:30 the wedding dinner was served also at the home of the bride's parents.
 The bride's table was decorated in green and gold and was set with a three-tiered wedding cake baked by the bride's mother.
 The couple gave a dance for their relatives and friends at the auditorium that evening.
 The bride's traveling attire was blue satin with black accessories and her wedding trip will include Rushville and Hot Springs, S. D.
 Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Stuart high school class of 1952 and Mr. Johnson attended school at Rushville.
 The couple will reside in Stuart where the bridegroom is employed by Mark Nelson as a truck driver.
