Legion Deer Feed Is Big Success
CHAMBERS—The American Legion's second annual armistice day deer feed was a "great success," officials said, with over 200 served a deer steak supper. Guests of honor were the Korean war veterans of the community. Following the feed, a show, "The Naked Spur," was shown at the theatre. The evening's entertainment concluded with a dance at the Legion hall. Money taken in during the day will go toward retreating the Legion's debt on the building.
