To Wed in December

Mr. and Mrs. John Kramer, sr., of Stuart announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret (above), to Hugh F. Langan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Langan of Spencer. A late December wedding has been planned.

Miss Mildred Kaup Weds Donald Myers

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday, November 7, when Miss Mildred Kaup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Kaup, and Donald Myers, son of Mr. Mrs. C. R. Meyers, were united in marriage.

Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the double-ring ceremony while Jerry Wallinger and Tom Bigelow acted as servers. The men's choir with Sister Vera at the organ sang the nuptial high mass.

The bride's gown was of chantilly type lace over satin. The lace bodice had a small illusion yoke edged in a sequin trim which continued down the front of the bodice. The neckline was finished with a small collar of lace and sequin trim. The full lace skirt fell into a cathedral train and the net veil extended the full length of the train. She carried an orchid and stephanotis on her bridal prayer book and wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Wilma Kaup was her sister's maid-of-honor and she wore a dusty rose floor length gown fashioned with a net over taffeta skirt and a strapless velvet bolice with a matching velvet jacket.

Miss Marybelle O'Connor of Emmet the bride's roommate while in nurses' training, and Miss Kay Meyers, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

Their gowns were fashioned identically as that of the maid-of-honor and were dark blue in color.

All three carried colonial bouquets of baby's breath and wore single strands of pearls, gifts of the bride.

Lois Kaup, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a pink net gown with velvet jacket and carried a small colonial bouquet of mums.

Russell Moody of Ainsworth and cousin of the bridegroom, was ringbearer and carried the matching rings on a satin heart shaped pillow.

Pfc. James Chaney of Camp Chaffee, Ark., and friend of the bridegroom, served as bestman.

Rollie Shald, cousin of the bride, and Gary Marcellus of Bassett, cousin of the bridegroom, were the other attendants. The bridegroom and his attendants wore business suits with carnation boutonnières.

The ushers were Gene Kaup, cousin of the bride, and Milton Weichman, friend of the bridegroom.

Breakfast was served to the bride party at the home of the bride's parents.

At 12:30 o'clock the wedding dinner was served to about 50 guests at the home of the bride's parents. That night the couple entertained friends and relatives at a dance at the auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers are both graduates of Stuart high school class of 1930.

Mrs. Meyers received her nurses' training at St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha and since her graduation has been employed at St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill. The bridegroom is working with his father for the John Deere Implement company. They will make their home in Stuart.

DELOIT NEWS The HEO club met last Thursday at the Maynard Stearns home. Mrs. Dozier, the teacher, and several of the pupils were guests after school. Mrs. Cletus Muff was also a guest. The next meeting will be December 10 at the Henry Reimer home.
