Favorite Yule Gift Roll Call Response

EMMETT—The Golden Keys club meeting was held at the Emmett school district 20 on Friday, November 20. The president, Jerry Schaaf, called the meeting to order. The roll call was answered by naming our favorite thing we wanted for Christmas. The roll call for next time is going to be naming our favorite season. For the program we are going to have what we did on Thanksgiving.

For the Junior Red Cross we are making 36 tray mats for a hospital.

Other school news: Steve Fox had a birthday party Monday, November 23, at school. He had cake and ice cream. His birthday anniversary was Sunday, November 22. He was 6-years-old.

Monday night, November 23, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Embody invited all the school children to their house for ice cream and cookies. We played games for an hour, then at 9 o'clock we ate and at about 9:30 o'clock we all went home.

We are making presents for our parents for Christmas. Because of the snowstorm on Friday, November 20, there were only 15 in school.

The Emmett grade school did not have school last Thursday day and Friday because of Thanksgiving. —By Kathleen Grothe, news reporter.
