Death Knell Is Sounded on Historic Middlebranch PO

PAGE — The Middlebranch postoffice was discontinued Tuesday, December 1. Mrs. Alta Finch had been the postmaster for the past 30 years. She has moved to Page to make her home. In September, 1923, Mrs. Finch and the late John Finch bought the Middlebranch store which they both operated until the death of Mr. Finch about two years ago. Since then Mrs. Finch had continued with the store and postoffice. Having decided she could not carry on the work she resigned. As no one seemed to want the postoffice it was discontinued and Mrs. Finch is disposing of the merchandise stock. About 70 years ago there was a flour mill at Middlebranch which was run for a number of years by different parties. There was also a church there for a number of years. Both buildings were razed a few years ago. At present only the store building is left at Middlebranch.

Elkhorn Club in Yule Party— The Elkhorn Project club held its Christmas party Tuesday, December 8, with all the members present except two. A 7 o'clock turkey dinner was served at the M & M cafe after which the members went to the home of Mrs. Dave Loy where contest games were played and gifts were exchanged. A lunch of coffee and fruitcake was served before the midnight hour.

Bar Meets at Bassett— A delegation of five from O'Neill attended a meeting of the Fifteenth Judicial District Bar association held Wednesday at Bassett. The group included District Judge D. R. Mounts, Ira H. Moss, William W. Griffin, Norman Gonderinger and Ted McElhaney. Honors Sister— Mrs. Paul Walker honored her sister, Mrs. Blake Benson, at a family dinner at her home Wednesday, December 9, in honor of Mrs. Benson's birthday anniversary.
