Mrs. Wallace E. Wimmer, the former Mary Catherine Graham... December bride—O'Neill Photo Co.

Graham-Wimmer Nuptials Read in Church Rite

A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday morning, December 26, at 11 o'clock in St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill when Miss Mary Catherine Graham, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Graham, became the bride of A/2 Wallace E. Wimmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wimmer, of Zion, Ill. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth Carl.

The bride given a waltz-length gown of nylon net over taffeta. The bodice and sleeves were of chantilly lace. The sleeves tapered to a point over her wrists. A wide piece of lace was through the skirt of the gown. It also featured a peler pan collar. She carried a bouquet of red and white carnations. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. Her veil was held in place by a tiara of seeded pearls.

Miss Patricia Judge, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of blue net over taffeta with a matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom and the best man wore dark blue suits and white boutonnières in their lapels. Bill McElvain ushered.

Sister M. Fries played the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Catherine Condon, who sang "Adeste Fidelis" and "Ave Maria."

After the ceremony, a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal group, Father Carl, and the immediate relatives. The bridal table was covered with a yellow lace cloth, blue candles in crystal holders, vases of yellow and white pom-pom mums and in the cake baked and decorated by the bride's sisters, Mrs. Orville Epenbach and Mrs. Bill Brewster.

The bride attended O'Neill high school and graduated in 1952. She is now employed at the Lee store in O'Neill.

The bridegroom is attending school at Scott air base at Belleville, Ill., after which he will leave for overseas duty in Africa.

Christmas eve dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McKenzie, jr., were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Streeter of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Streeter of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hue-Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Streeter and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Street.
