Kramer - Langan Nuptials at Stuart

STUART—Before an altar banked with poinsettias and mixed flowers. In the St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart Monday, December 28, at 10 o'clock Miss Margaret Mary Kramer became the bride of Hugh F. Langan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Langan of Spencer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kramer of Stuart.

Rev. A. J. Paschang officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Music was furnished by the St. Boniface men's choir, accompanied by Sister Vera at the organ. John Engler and Delray Stracke served as altar boys.

The bride, escorted by her father, appeared in an ice blue gown of lace over satin. The fitted bodice was buttoned in the back with tiny lace covered buttons and had a yoke of net. The skirt was full and fell into an aisle wide train. Her fingertip veil was of ice blue illusion and was fashioned with a seed pearl bonnet effect tiara. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses and a white prayer book and pearl rosary. Her jewelry consisted of a double strand of pearls and matching earrings, which were gifts from the bridegroom. She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, and a lucky penny in her shoe.

Miss Betty Hamik of Ainsworth, cousin of the bride, as maid-of-honor appeared in a copper colored, full skirted satin gown. Miss Joyce Ann Seibken of Stuart, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid appeared in a Nile green taffeta, full skirted gown. Each wore matching halo hats and mitts. They carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers with streamers matching their gowns.

Miss Patty Kramer, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired in a pink net gown with matching white jacket. Randy Kramer, nephew of the bride, acted as page boy and wore white trousers with a navy blue jacket and a white carnation boutonniere. Both carried white baskets with streamers and mixed flowers.

The bridegroom wore a light brown business suit and white carnation boutonniere. Tom Langan of Spencer, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Larry Kramer of Stuart, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Both wore brown suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Johnny and Paul Kramer, brothers of the bride, were ushers. They both wore light business suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Dorothy Wilkinson of O'Neill, friend of the couple, was in charge of the guest book. She wore a corsage of red and white carnations.

The mother of the bride chose a navy blue dress and wore a corsage of pink and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of grey and also wore a corsage of pink and white carnations.

After the ceremony breakfast was served to about 85 guests at the Stuart auditorium. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake baked by Mrs. Shattuck and decorated by Mrs. Edwin Engler. The bridegroom's cake, baked and decorated by the bride, was a two-tier spice cake. Burning candles were placed on each side of the cake.

Table waitresses were the Misses Helen Engler, Marvel Jean Johnson, Marilyn Fritton, Mrs. Ronald Borg, Mrs. Alfred Hamik and Mrs. Sammie Derickson. All wore matching white aprons. The ladies who cooked the meal were Mrs. Edwin Engler, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Joe Kaup, Sr., and Mrs. Louis

Steinhauser. Mrs. Ed Seibken helped with the coffee.

An afternoon reception from 2 to 4 for about 100 guests was also held in the Stuart auditorium.

In the evening the young couple entertained their friends and relatives at a dance at the Legion ballroom in O'Neill.

For traveling the bride chose a three-piece red and tweed poodle cloth suit with winter white matching accessories.

The young couple will live north of O'Neill where Mr. Langan is engaged in ranching. The bride attended St. Boniface school in Stuart and has been employed with the Northwestern Bell Telephone company in O'Neill. Mr. Langan attended school in Spencer.

Out-of-town guests included Cpl. and Mrs. Alfred Stracke of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Pat Langan, Mr. and Mrs. Art Remter and Mary, Dave and John Langan, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Langan and Thomsa Langan, all of Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. M. Langan, Mrs. John Dewitt, Mary Hartigan of Inman; Kathy Seger, Delores Hamik, Jo Ann Pucelik, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hamik, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Borg, Tom Blake, Marilyn Fritton, Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Derickson and Miss Dorothy Wilkinson, all of O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Black and son of Spencer.

Butterfields Are Hosts to His Relatives—
Mr. and Mrs. Elden Butterfield were hosts Sunday at a family dinner and supper for Mr. Butterfield's relatives.

Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Everette Bittner and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kindt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bittner and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Butterfield and daughter and Mrs. Clarence Atkinson, all of Winner, S.D., Mr. and Mrs. Nels Linnquist and family and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cleveland and family, all of Star, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butterfield and daughter and Mrs. Rebecca Butterfield of Orchard and Mr. and Mrs. Jay McConnell.

Serviceman, Bride Honored at Shower—
STUART—Cpl. and Mrs. Thurlow were honored guests at a postnuptial shower Tuesday evening, December 21, given at the Stuart auditorium with Mrs. Roy Thurlow and Mrs. F. E. Gestrich of Atkinson as hostesses.

Corporal and Mrs. Thurlow were married October 1, at Bryan, Tex., where he is stationed with the air force and they arrived here December 19, for a 15-day furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ray and daughter, Mary, are in California spending the holidays. They will include Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thorn-ton of Venus, Calif., on their itinerary. The Rays are expected to return "about January 4 or 5."

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Norman of O'Neill have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margery (above), to Jim B. Odle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hines Odle of Kansas City, Kans. A wedding date has not been set. Miss Norman is a senior at O'Neill public school.

McIntosh Party for Employees—
