Same Old Problems in '53

By MELVIN PAUL
The Frontier's Statehouse Correspondent

LINCOLN—As the year 1953 came to a close this week, statehouse officials looked back on the happenings of the past 12 months...

That there were some definite alterations in the looks of a few of the problems could be credited to Governor Crosby himself...

The next day after he took office the new governor found himself face-to-face with a far reaching supreme court decision that determined that Nebraska equalize their taxes...

much criticism of the governor. Some still resent his tax assessment action. Some feel he should come out for a sales tax on grounds that the property tax is unworkable...

There is still some bitterness over his abrupt firing of certain members of the previous administration. And there is cynicism at his "Operation Honey"...

But Crosby's name looms large in 1953's story of new approaches to old Nebraska problems. Whether these are the final answers must wait for later years to answer.

Motor Vehicle License & Tax Information
Motor vehicle license plates will go on sale at the County Treasurer's office in O'Neill on Saturday morning, January 2. The court house is closed on Saturday afternoons. There is an entirely new law in regard to taxes on motor vehicles and a different rate of license fees, so please read this notice thoroughly to avoid a delay in licensing. The County Treasurer's office will be closed until 9 o'clock in the morning so we can try to keep up with the mail orders and give us some time for book work before opening the door.

We of CONSUMERS PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT are keenly aware of the tremendous importance of adequate electric power in the future of a progressive Nebraska. We're looking ahead far beyond 1954!
