Chace Hits Torrid Pace as Blues Win

Speedy Forward Gets 35 Points

The partisans who followed the O'Neill high Eagles to Burwell Tuesday evening witnessed a ding-dong scoring duel between O'Neill's Larry Chace, who poured in 35 points, and a left-handed Burwell sophomore center named Cunningham, who potted 28.

O'Neill trailed for three ful! quarters, finally went ahead 39-37 in the final minute of the third stanza. Coach Paul Baker's Blues went on to win it, 59-54. The Longhorns led 11-9 at the first quarter, 29-26 at the half Mr. Chace was uncanny at the treethrow lane, drawing 13 gratis tries and converting 15 of them.

The Eagles' performance was no great shucks until the fourth quarter, though Mr. Chare kept them in the ball game.

O'Neill meets the Neligh Warriors at Neligh on Friday night and next Tuesday evening will entertain the undefeated Ainsworth Bulldogs.
