

Miss Elsie Cooper

Weds Syllas E. Coy

ORCHARD—Miss Elsie Cooper and Army Pfc. Syllas E. Coy were married Saturday, January 2, at Wesleyan Methodist church in O'Neill. It was an afternoon rite. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper of Ewing. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Syllas Coy of Atkinson.

Rev. M. H. Grosenbach, church pastor, officiated with the ceremony. Miss Vera Erst of O'Neill sang "Love Never Fails" and "Through the Years." She was accompanied by Miss Irene Searles of Omaha.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of white chantilly lace over nylon net and taffeta. The fitted bodice was styled with a high neckline. A Juliet cap of ruffled nylon held the bride's shoulder-length nylon net veil. She carried an arrangement of red roses and fern tied with white satin.

Miss Mary Lou Cooper of O'Neill, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pink lace and taffeta ballerina-length gown topped with a matching stole. Her headress of pink nylon net was fashioned like that of the bride. Miss Cooper carried white chrysanthemums.

James Sechineder of Atkinson served as bestman.

The bride was graduated from Orchard high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college. She is now a rural teacher. The bridegroom attended school in Atkinson and has spent the past year in the army. He is stationed at Camp Hale, Colo.

Knittel-Warnke Nuptials at Butte

On Wednesday, January 6, Miss Clara Knittel of Butte became the bride of Paul Warnke of Anoka, in a nuptial rite at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic church in Butte.

The bride appeared in a ballerina-length white gown made with an overskirt of nylon net. The snug lace bodice featured a high neckline and self-covered buttons and sleeves that ended in points over her wrists. A small cap, trimmed with seed pearls, held her fingertip veil. She wore a corsage of white roses and carried a prayer book.

Mrs. Lyle Lamero of O'Neill, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid, wearing an aqua ballerina-length gown designed with a tucked bodice and deep neckline. She wore a pink rose corsage. Lyle Lamero, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as bestman.

Rev. Edward Gill officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Katheryn Seger Becomes Bride

STUART—A quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, January 6, at 3 o'clock in St. Boniface Catholic church when Miss Katheryn May Seger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Seger of Stuart, became the bride of A/1c Robert Rolland Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox of O'Neill.

The processional was played by Sister Vera and the double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Paschang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue shadow check suit with red accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of red and white carnations.

Her attendant, Mrs. William Kelly, sister of the bridegroom, wore a grey shadow check suit with navy accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and orange carnations.

The bridegroom and his attendant, Mrs. R. Fox, both wore business suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Ushers were Lowell Seger and Gordon Fox, brothers of the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Seger wore a maroon suit with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Fox chose a grey dress with black accessories. They both wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Stuart auditorium for 75 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and flanked with lighted candles.

Miss Theo Weichman was in charge of the guest book and Miss Delores Hamik was in charge of the gifts. Mrs. Liver Gilg of Newport and Mrs. Leonard Bazelman of O'Neill poured.

Mrs. Fox is a graduate of Stuart high school with the class of 1952 and since her graduation has been employed by the Bell Telephone company of O'Neill.

Mr. Fox is a graduate of O'Neill public school and studied one year in Norfolk junior college before he was called into the service.

The couple left Thursday, January 7, for Hailomen air force base in New Mexico where they will make their home.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and sons, Gordon, Charles, Raymond and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fox, Mr. and Mrs. George Bosn, Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly, Mrs. Fritz Belzer, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Marcellus, Richard Nelson, Miss Frances Reimer, Mrs. Leonard Bazelman, Richard and Patsy, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fox and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kendall, all of Emmet; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gilg, Mrs. Mable Fox and Mrs. Don Kaup, all of Newport, also the operators, from the telephone office, Mrs. Bob Erwin, Joan Pucelik, Mrs. Don Adamson, Dorothy Wilkinson, Ramona Wayman, Mrs. Darrel Beckwith and Beatrice Jauerig.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kemper were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Larson.

The WSCS met last Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church parlors. Mrs. Herbert Steinberg led the devotions and gave the lesson. Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge had charge of the business meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Hal Farnsworth and Mrs. Ralph Brostrom.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kemper and Mr. and Mrs. William Buxton were dinner guests Sunday noon of Mrs. Hester Edmisten.

Carpet-Sewing Day to Be Set

PAGE—Thirteen members of the Page auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. George Park Monday evening for their January meeting. Initiation was held for new members—Mesdames Otto Matschullat, Lester Riege, Dale Matschullat and Alvin Hesse.

It was voted to give $5 to the march of dimes. A kitchen shower was planned for the Legion hall kitchen.

A day will soon be set for members to sew carpet rags. The door prize was won by Mrs. Evelyn Gray. After the business meeting cards were enjoyed by the group. Mrs. Park and the co-hostess, Mrs. Ray Snell served refreshments.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Gray with Mrs. Calvin Harvey as co-hostess.
