METHODIST (Emmett)
Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor

The church attendance campaign, which is in progress at Emmett, is going to be emphasized at Emmett, too. All members and friends of the church are asked to manifest their loyalty to Christ and His church by attending the services of their church regularly.

Worship at Emmett is at 9:45 a.m. At the same time as the adults and youths are worshipping, church school, under the direction of Mrs. William Serck and Leah, will be in progress in the basement. Churchgoers are invited to bring their children with them to church. Following the worship service church school for youth and adults is conducted.

There will be no Bible study on January 20 as the pastor is attending a jurisdictional youth workers' training school at Mason City, Ia.

Methodist Group Host in Postponed Rally
Members of the northeast Nebraska district young adult fellowships will meet at O'Neill's Methodist church on Sunday, January 24. This rally was originally scheduled for November 29 but was "snowed out."

All folks interested in the work of the young adults are invited to come at 3 p.m., and to lunch with the group and stay for the evening meeting.
