CARDS OF THANKS

I WISH to thank Doctor Wilson, the nurses and other members of St. Anthony's hospital staff for the fine care I received during my recent illness. Also many thanks to relatives and friends who so kindly remembered me with cards, letters, gifts and visits while there and since I returned home.
ZOEYLLYN GILMAN 37c

I WANT to take this means of thanking all who sent me cards and made personal calls to make my stay in the hospital more pleasant. I also want to thank the Sisters and nurses and Doctor Wilson for their wonderful care. Sincerely,
MRS. PAUL WOJNICK 37c

Weekly Market Report

The Atkinson Livestock Market
Atkinson, Nebraska
Tuesday, Jan. 12 Auction

Cattle receipts totaled 1093 head for our second sale in 1954. It was about the same story as a week ago, the quality of the cattle was extremely good and prices generally higher. Choice yearling steers and calves predominated in the run. Prices on the good to choice steer calves looked fully 50 cents higher while heifer calves sold $1.00 cwt. higher than a week ago.

Strictly choice yearling steers were in good supply and the buyers established new season's high on the quality offerings. Most of the yearling steers looked $1.00 to $2.00 cwt. up from last Tuesday's sale. Yearling heifers were scarce but $14.50 to $16.50 cwt. was the selling range. No older cattle were offered and only a few breeding cows which topped at $139.50 per head. Canners and cutters were selling from $7.50 to $9.50 cwt. Good to choice beef cows $10.00 to $11.50 while the bologna bulls were bringing anywhere from $10.50 to $13.00 cwt.

Next Auction will be Tuesday, Jan. 19th. Let us know about your next consignment as early as possible. It will help us to help you. "Sell 'em the Auction Way—At Atkinson." See you next Tuesday!
