

Eagles Annex Win at Basestt, 52-43

O'Neill Crew Never Headed

Coach Paul Baker's O'Neill high school team never headed Tuesday night at Basestt as the Blues rolled to a 52-43 win over Rock county high. O'Neill led 18-6 at the first quarter, 30-20 at the half, and 39-29 going into the fourth.

Larry Chace tallied 18 points for O'Neill and Russ Miner produced 10. Marvin Bussinger was Basestt's best bet with 14 points. In a preliminary, the O'Neill seconds lost to the Basestt reserves, 39-55.

4 Deloit Youth in Gloves Tourney

DELOIT—Four Deloit boys—the Pofahl brothers—were entered in the Norfolk golden gloves tournament which opened Wednesday night and continues through today (Thursday). They are: Dean, 17, featherweight; Roger, 16, lightweight; Martin, 21, welterweight, and Max, 22, middleweight.

Forty amateur boxers, the largest entry list in recent years, were entered in the 17th annual event at Norfolk.

Dean Pofahl was the 1953 featherweight champ and is defending his crown.

Sirens, Bells Will Launch Polio March

(Continued from page 1) Polio "bonds" available in $10, $25, $50 and $100 denominations. The Martha Community club collected $25 in a scrap drive, bringing that community's total to $156. A box social conducted by the Beacon Neighbors' extension club netted $50. The Star Get-together made a $5 donation.

Miss Alice French, Holt county superintendent of public instruction, reported that 61 of 134 rural schools in the county have collected $217.95. Seventy-three schools have yet to make a report, she added.

Mail solicitation for funds from rural areas has been "slow in coming in," according to John H. McCarville of O'Neill, publicity chairman for the Holt chapter.

Former Resident Expires at Lincoln

Ethel Hubbard Rites to Be Held Friday

Mrs. Ethel Hubbard, 74, widow of the late Hiram B. Hubbard, died early Wednesday, January 27, at Lincoln.

Funeral services will be conducted in Lincoln at 11 o'clock Friday, January 28, in charge of the Roper mortuary, Rev. Frank Cook and Rev. J. W. Henderson will officiate. Burial will be in Wyuka cemetery, Lincoln.

The late Mrs. Hubbard, whose maiden name was Ethel Haskins, was born in Nemaha county July 12, 1879. She lived for several years in Otoe county, and married Mr. Hubbard at Nebraska City on June 12, 1901.

The family resided in the O'Neill community for many years. Mr. Hubbard ranched for a time, delivered petroleum products with a team and wagon, and later operated a harness shop. Mrs. Hubbard served on the board of education. The family left O'Neill in 1934, moving to Lincoln.

Mr. Hubbard died January 6, 1941.

Survivors include: Daughter—Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme of Lincoln, member of the city council there; Dr. Harry F. Hubbard of Marietta, Wis.; one granddaughter; brothers—Thomas H. Haskins and Harry Haskins, both of Franklin; sisters—Mrs. Henry Manschreck of Danbury and Mrs. Alvin Row of Franklin.

The late Mrs. Hubbard was a member of St. Paul's Methodist church, Lincoln, and the Woodman circle.

Wedding Anniversary—
Atkinson—Saturday, January 23, was the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cleary of Atkinson. On Sunday, their children and a number of friends surprised them in honor of the occasion. The afternoon was spent socially and ice cream and cake were served.

Club Meets—
The Chez-A-Mari club was entertained by Mrs. Bud Cole Monday evening at a 7 o'clock dinner at the M & M cafe, followed with cards in her home. Winners were Mrs. Ed Gleason, Mrs. O. D. French and Mrs. William Artus. Mrs. Larry Schaffer was a guest.

FATHER DIES
S. W. Stevens of Hartington, prominent Cedar county farmer and for many years chairman of the Cedar county agriculture and stabilization committee, died Sunday, January 17, from a heart attack. He was the father of Mrs. L. A. Becker of O'Neill.

HOLD OPEN-HOUSE
SPENCER—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Blum were honored Tuesday, January 26, on their golden wedding day. Open house was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Blum at Napier.
