Sick & Injured

PAGE—Mrs. Rollie Snell, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks, is slowly improving. William Neubauer, janitor of the Page school, has been off of work for two weeks because of back trouble. Roy Stewart, former janitor, helped with the work during his absence. Frank Snyder seems to get no relief from his ear trouble. It has bothered him for more than a week. Harvey Cullen has been quite ill but is improving. After Mrs. I. O. Wood received word her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lonnie Wood of Elm Creek, was entering a hospital for a major operation, she accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brostrom and Brady to Grand Island Saturday morning. From there she went to Elm Creek to help her son care for the home and children. She expects to be absent a week or 10 days. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sorensen came to Page Friday to take his mother, Mrs. Soren Sorensen, Sr., to their home near Creighton for a few days. Mrs. Sorensen recently fell on ice and broke her wrist and injured her leg so it bothers her to get around. Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Jakes received word their son, Millard, at Nampa, Ida., had returned to a hospital there. While his condition is not considered serious, it will take some time for him to regain his health. Herbert Kirschmer is "somewhat improved." Herbert grew to manhood on a farm southeast of Page. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chester received word their son, Morlin, had recently submitted to a major operation in a hospital at Boise, Ida. His condition was critical for some time but is much improved at present. Mr. Chichester lived here for a number of years before going to Idaho. Mrs. W. E. Wanser suffered a serious heart attack Saturday evening. She was alone but managed to get to the phone and call for help. Both of her sons, Max of Ewing and Beverly of Holly Springs, Ia., and Mr. Wanser were called. She was taken to St. Anthony's hospital at O'Neill where her condition remained about the same Sunday. Miss Lois Brewster suffered a relapse and was taken to St. Anthony's hospital at O'Neill. Miss Brewster submitted to a major operation several weeks ago and had recovered sufficiently to enter school again.

Broncos Roll Over Long Pine, 70-27. Hytek Tallies 21 for Stuart. STUART — The Stuart high Broncos breezed to an easy victory over Long Pine high Friday night on the Stuart court, 70-27. Stuart jumped to a 14-7 first-quarter lead, moved to a 32-13 halftime advantage, and were out in front 49-20 at the end of the third. Jack Hytek led the Broncos with a 21-point total. The Bronco yearlings won the prelim over the Long Pine numbers, 34-23.

Eagles Kayoed by Stuart in Tourney

VALENTINE—An air of over-confidence on the part of the O'Neill high Eagles and a never-say-die determination for the Stuart high Broncos enabled Stuart to oust O'Neill Tuesday night in North-Central Nebraska conference basketball tourney play in Valentine's new gymnasium. Stuart won, 49-44, after leading 27-25 at intermission. In first round games played Monday night, Stuart defeated Springfield in an overtime, Bassett (Rock county high) raced past Long Pine and Ainsworth got past Valentine.
