Stuart, Long Pine Gals Win Games

STUART—The North-Central Nebraska conference high school girls' volleyball tournament got underway Monday night, February 8, in the Stuart auditorium. The opening contest at 6:30 o'clock was between Ainsworth and Long Pine. Long Pine was the winner, 43-21. Stuart was across the net from Valentine in the second game. Final score: Stuart 40, Valentine 23. The third game between Bassett and Springview ended with Springview 43, Bassett 31. On Wednesday night Atkinson, which drew a bye, was to face Springview and Stuart and Long Pine were to play.

Finals will be played tonight (Thursday).

An Important Note to all Farmers

Dear Friends:
Just a line to extend a personal invitation to you and your family to attend our big John Deere Day.

We've gone all out to provide a program "jam-packed with entertainment and interest—a program we feel sure will delight young and old alike.

For instance, the feature picture is "Mr. Christmas," a story that has a little of everything, including humor and suspense. And by the way, it's filmed in beautiful Eastman color. The Gordon family will be there too, in "The Safety Pin"—and, oh, there's much more you're sure to enjoy.

So don't disappoint us. Make your plans now to be with us on John Deere Day. It's all free, but admission is by ticket only. If you haven't received yours yet—or if you need more—be sure to pick them up at our store.

Don't forget, we're expecting you John Deere Day.
