3123* modern American families will buy an electric range

today because it's....

- faster
- cleaner
- safer
- modern

For four straight years an average of 3,123 modern American families, per day, switched to cooking electrically! The reason is simple. It's the modern... the better way to cook! Ask your friends or neighbors who cook electrically why they chose an electric range! Their reasons are why flameless electric cooking should be the way you cook too!

SEE FOR YOURSELF!

We realize that you no doubt have read and heard many conflicting statements regarding electric cooking. We are prepared to prove conclusively that the claims we make for the electric range are true. We invite you to visit our office and ask to see an actual demonstration of the speed, efficiency, cleanliness and safety of the electric range. Get the full story on the electric range's greater economy and its superior performance!
