

Lynch Couple Weds at Courthouse Here

Miss Norma Christensen of Lynch, daughter of Lewie Christensen, became the bride of Leo Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Thomson, at O'Neill Monday afternoon. Holt County Judge Louis W. Reimer performed the single-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length blue suit with black accessories. She wore a red rose corsage. Her attendant was her sister, Mrs. Donald Rossmeyer.

The bridesmaid appeared in a blue street-length dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom wore a dark blue suit and a carnation boutonniere. He was a brother, The Ivan Thomson.

The bestman was attired in a dark blue suit and also wore a carnation boutonniere.

A dinner in honor of the couple was served to immediate relatives at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Mrs. Thomson attended school near Monowi and at Lynch. At the present time she is assisting at the hospital at Lynch.

Mr. Thomson grew to manhood in the Monowi and Lynch communities and has served in military service. He is now employed as the city marshal at Lynch.

The couple has begun house-keeping at Lynch in the Dale Mulhair house.

Jesse Kelly, Wife Married 25 Years

PAGE — Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kelly observed their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday by entertaining a number of relatives at dinner. Their anniversary date was Friday, February 5.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hansen and daughter of Loskins, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Abney of Luman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly and children, Mrs. Anna Thompson, Ruth Kelly and Mrs. William Ansen and daughter of Wayne.

Guests in the afternoon included Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Girs and children, Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Thompson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were married at the Methodist parsonage in O'Neill by Reverend Fortune. They have lived on the same farm since their marriage. They are the parents of three children: Beverly (Mrs. Hansen), Thomas, who farms near home, and Ruth, at home.

Low Calories Again Club Topic

The Elkhorn Project club met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Kindlund on Tuesday evening. Mrs. D. N. Loy, vice-president, conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. M. A. Schelkopf.

The second part of the low calorie lesson was presented by Mrs. Robert Cook and Mrs. Hattie Kindlund. They served two low calorie desserts — cheese cake and pineapple sherbet.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Clay Johnson and Mrs. Mamie Cordes.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cook.

ATTEND CAPPING EWING

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gibson, accompanied by Miss Joan Binkerd, went to Omaha on Friday where they attended the tea at the nurses' home at the Methodist hospital. In the evening, they went to the St. Paul's Methodist church to attend the capping ceremony of 50 student nurses, including their daughter, Marcia.
