Clubbers Point to Long Pine Outing

The O'Neill Willing Workers met in spite of the storm at the Neil Dawes home on Friday, February 19, at 8 o'clock. We sang songs first and then we had our installation of officers. Each new officer gave a pledge as he lit a candle. The installation service ended with everybody repeating the 4-H pledge. There were 15 members present. We have 18 members this year so far.
The club as a whole is taking health first and then cooking. There are several group projects. They are: Rabbits, livestock, poultry, sewing, forestry and yard beautification. We are making plans to contribute our $20 to the county fair fund for a new 4-H building. We are also trying hard to get as many members as possible to go to 4-H club camp at Long Pine. We plan to have a money-raising event to help each member earn his money.
We chose the leaders for our projects which are as follows: Cooking and health, Mrs. Charles Crook and Mrs. Charles Richter; rabbits, Bill Brewster; livestock, Charlie Richter; poultry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellin; sewing, Mrs. Mary Tomlinson; forestry, Charles Crook; yard beautification, Mrs. Neil Dawes.
We began building our health castle with the first two blocks—"food" and "cleanliness." We also made a big chart showing the kinds of food we need. We ended with a George Washington game, "Hunting for Cherries." Lunch was served by Crooks.—By Perry Dawes, news reporter.
