

Prominent North-Nebraskan Dies

AINSWORTH—Harry Thorley, 65, president of the Commercial National bank of Ainsworth and the First National bank of Springview, died unexpectedly about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Ainsworth hospital. He had suffered heart attacks Sunday and Monday and entered the hospital for rest.

He was born at Des Moines Ia., and the family later moved to Springview, where his father, George H. Thorley, founded the Springview bank and later the Ainsworth bank.

Mr. Thorley was active in many state and community projects. He was a member of the Nebraska-Kr. citizens council, and recently was named a director of the Nebraska Reclamation association. He was one of the main springs in the Niobrara basin irrigation project. He also participated in many Masonic activities.

Survivors include his wife, a son and daughter.

Club Meets—
The Friendly Neighbors club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ted Strong. Ten members and one guest were present. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Durvin Kipple and Mrs. Strong. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bennie Hill.

Miss Helen Hartly, accompanied by a friend, Miss Rita Mattingly, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Hartly. Both girls are students at St. Mary's college in Omaha.

CDA to Meet—
The Catholic Daughters will meet Tuesday evening, March 2, at the K. of C. hall for a business session.

SSR in Session—
The SSR club met at the home of Mrs. Emmett Crabb on Wednesday afternoon.

Over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kurtz visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kurtz, in Long Pine.

Sisters Similarly Ill, One Dies

Diane Delphine Bursell (left), 17-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bursell of the Phoenix community, died Tuesday, February 16, in St. Anthony's hospital. Funeral services were conducted here Thursday afternoon. Death was caused by an intestinal infection. On Friday, her sister, Donna Lee (right), was taken to the hospital with a similar ailment but is now recovering.

Woman Dies, Stuart Man Hurt in Crash

STUART — Two Holt county young men were hurt, one critically, in a two-car crash Tuesday night at an intersection in Grand Island.

Danny Flannigan, 18, of Stuart, driver of one of the cars, was seriously hurt, and Duane Bonenberger, 18, of Atkinson, a passenger, was treated for minor injuries.

The crash killed Mrs. A. H. Andersen of Grand Island, who died shortly after being admitted to St. Francis hospital, Grand Island. Her husband was reported in critical condition Wednesday.

Iris Ellis of Shelton, another passenger in the Flannigan car, was slightly hurt.

Grand Island police said the Andersens were going west on a through street when Flannigan's car hit the Andersen vehicle broadside, knocking it against a tree across the street. A stop sign protected the through street.

Mrs. Andersen's survivors include her husband and two sons, both in service.

Katheryn Hoffman Competes at Norfolk

CHAMBERS — Miss Katheryn Hoffman won the Americanism contest and represented Chambers high school at the district contest held in Norfolk high school on Tuesday, February 23. Second place went to Lorraine Farrier, and third place to Shirley DeHart. The first two girls are seniors and Shirley is a junior.

Seven students participated in the contest sponsored by the American Legion. The others were Leon Urban, Clifford Walters, Betty Gartner and Arthur Urban.

Subject matter for the orations was taken from various phases of the U.S. constitution.

Prizes of $10, $8 and $3 were given by the Legion to the first, second and third place winners.

Judges for the contest were Charles E. Chace of Atkinson, Legion district vice-commander; Miss Helen May of Ewing and Mrs. T. E. Alderson of Chambers.

Pvt. Ted Lindberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindberg, recently was transferred to Ft. Bragg, N. C., from Ft. Sill, Okla. Ted is with the 49th field artillery observation battalion. INMAN—About 75 persons attended the all-church supper sponsored by the young adult fellowship Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Taylor were coffee hosts. The persons who have come into full membership in the church during the past three months were given a welcome by the pastor and received certificates of membership.

Following the supper, Donald Keyes showed slides. Rev. Lisle Mewman presented a short devotional talk. The young adult business meeting was conducted by the president, Marvin Rouse. The sum of $50 had been realized from the sale of lunches at the last three home basketball games and this amount is to be paid into the building fund for the installation of restrooms.

The next meeting and supper will be March 21 at which time the teachers of the Inman public school, teachers from nearby rural schools and the high school seniors will be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Kopecky will be coffee hosts.

Latzel Returning from Korea
