Mr. and Mrs. Allen F. Davis... the bride is the former Donna Belle Whaley of O'Neill.—The Frontier Photo by John H. McCarville.

Whaley - Davis Nuptials Here

A double-ring ceremony on Monday, March 1, before an altar decorated with candelabra and pink and white snapdragons united in marriage Miss Donna Belle Whaley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Whaley of O'Neill, and Allen F. Davis of Edgemont, S.D., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Edgemont.

It was a 9:30 a.m. ceremony at the Methodist church in O'Neill with Rev. Wallace B. Smith officiating at the ceremony.

Mrs. Clifford Sobotka of O'Neill, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor, and George Morland of Mills, cousin of the bridegroom, was the bestman. Thomas Etherton of Atkinson, attired in a blue suit, was ring-bearer. Ushers were John Etherton of Beatrice, Clifford Sobotka of O'Neill, and Eugene Sobotka of O'Neill.

The bride's dress was of nylon net and lace over white tulle. The fitted lace bodice buttoned down the back. A short nylon overskirt edged with imported lace was gathered in place in the back and fell over the floor-length pleated nylon net overskirt.

The long tapering sleeves were cuffed in lace. Her fingertip double net illusion veil was held in place by a coronet of rhinestones and pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls and carried a white prayer book with satin streamers centered by an orchid. The necklace and prayer book were gifts from the bridegroom.

The matron-of-honor's dress of blue nylon net and lace was styled like the bride's. She wore a braided nylon net bandeau and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Grant Peacock, soloist, sang "Because," "Through the Years" and "Prayer Perfect." Mrs. John Harbottle was the organist.

The bride's mother wore navy with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother appeared in blue. Her accessories were gray. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

A 12:30 p.m. dinner at the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake and white tapers. Mrs. Eugene Sobotka had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a gray suit with navy accessories and an orchid corsage. After an Eastern wedding trip, the couple will live at Edgemont, where Mr. Davis is in business. He graduated from Edgemont high school and attended the Coe technical institute in Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Davis graduated from the O'Neill high school and received her registered nurse degree from Clarkson school of nursing, Omaha. Before her marriage she was employed at the Lutheran hospital in Hot Springs, S.D.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Due to the fact that there have been a good many changes in the individual schedule for 1954 assessment, we are showing Section 1, 2, 3 & 4 of the individual schedule. Section 1 is household goods, Section 2 is lawn and garden equip., Section 3 is recreation equip., and Section 4 is personal items.

Every item in Sections 1, 2, 3 & 4 having a value of $1 or more should be listed. Depreciation table I may be used in valuing any items that cost in excess of $5 new.

Section 5 of the individual schedule deals with farm machinery and may be valued on the basis of depreciation No. II, except combines, hay balers and compickers. These are valued from the farm machinery guide. Section 6 deals with tractors, these will be valued from the machinery guide. Livestock, grain, hay and seed will be valued by a value set at the assessors' meeting. Intangible A will be taxed at the rate of 25c per $100. Intangible B at 40c per $100.

Here are things that you need to know when you go to your assistant assessor—know your address, age, precinct and which school district you live in. Know hold old and what you paid for each article on the schedule. Know how much money you have in the bank, postal savings and Book Account. Know how many shares of stocks in corp. and other items in the Intangible B class. All of these questions are on the schedule. If the assessor is not satisfied the way the property is listed the burden of proof will be on the taxpayer to prove he has listed his property correctly. Be sure to read over the schedule to see that everything has been listed correctly, then read the OATH before you sign the schedule. Don't sign any schedule that you cannot prove is correct.

For your convenience you may cut this portion of the schedule out of the paper, fill it out, show the age and cost of the articles you have and take it with you to the assessor. This will save time in making out your schedule.

For business places the schedule will be mailed out, all schedules must be returned to the Co. Assessors. To fill out the business schedule, show the trade name, owner's name and business address, a corporation, partnership or individual schedule, show if the business is in town or precinct and type of business.

To complete Section F of the business schedule every item having a value of $1 or more should be listed. Items that cost $10 new shall be valued in accordance with depreciation table I. If the taxpayer elects to do so he may use book value depreciation according to schedule F of the Internal Revenue Code for completion of Section F of the business and professional schedule. He must, however, maintain adequate accounting records to verify his return and no item of property shall be depreciated beyond 20% of original cost. Section G must be complete according to records kept by the firm this must be actual value of inventories Book accounts or open account shall be listed as Intangible A.

Supplemental schedules will be sent with the business schedule for grain, oil dealers, Motor Vehicle dealers and Corporations, also banks. Before you sign the business schedule, be sure they are made out correctly and that everything is listed, because these schedules will be checked very close to see that they are correct.

Assessing date is March 10 and closing date is April 20th. All schedules are delinquent after April 20th. Schedules must be filed by every individual owning property or any other individual who has attained the age of 21 years.

LAW: The penalty for failure, neglect or refusal to list property or subscribe to the oath is the addition of 50% to the value of the property listed. In case no schedule has been filed the assessor shall ascertain to the best of his ability the amount and value of the property listed and shall add 50% of the value thereof.

Intangibles, (such as money in the bank) omitted from the schedule shall be added up on discovery and shall be taxed at the rate applicable to tangible property.

The penalty for perjury is applicable in case of falsification.

The penalty for perjury is from one to four-years imprisonment plus a fine of from $100 to $1000.

Penalties provided under Section 77-1235 are not optional with the Co. Assessor but must be applied.

Property in hands of agents, consignee, caretaker, administrator, executor, guardian must be listed by them.

Make light work of heavy going

NEW IDEA-HORN LOADER has terrific "break away" power. Lifts up to 2500 lbs. (No. "50" and "LS" models). Three models fit practically any tractor. Telescoping cylinder on "50" gives fast lift, high reach without bulky superstructure. Tubular steel construction, with coped joints, combines great strength with low weight. 10 easy-on attachments make this New IDEA a year 'round worker.

NEW IDEA MANURE SPREADERS. Three sizes, with 90, 75, and 65 bushel capacities. No. 12-A is biggest, most efficient ground-driven spreader on the market. Select pine, double-ribbed to steel framework prevents sagging or buckling. Built for years of top service under today's high speeds and sudden shocks from heavy loads dropped by hydraulic loaders. New IDEA Spreaders shred thoroughly—spread controlled amounts evenly.

Built by world's largest manufacturer of spreaders and hydraulic loaders.
