NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

It is taking more time to make out the personal schedule this year, you can help the assessor by having your property listed before you go to the assessor. Make a list and know the year you bought it and the amount you paid for each article.

In O'Neill we have only about 10% of the schedules and half of the time is gone. Don't wait till the last week because we won't be able to write all of the schedules, and all schedules are due before April 20th.

You can do your own assessing if you come and get a schedule. We will show you how to fill it out.

Durre-Schwager Nuptial Vows Here

The wedding of Miss Gladys Mae Durre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Durre, Sr., of Ewing, to Everett Schwager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwager of Orchard, took place at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, March 13, at the Methodist church in O'Neill. Rev. Wallace B. Smith officiated at the ceremony.

Miss Ruthe Durre, sister of the bride, was the maid-of-honor, and Gerald Goldfarb of Piller was the best man. The day had special significance as it was the birthday anniversary of the bride's father.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length full skirted princess style gown of white slipper satin with a fitted bodice of satin and nylon net insertion and a low oval neckline. Her fingertip illusion veil of nylon was held in place by a bandeau of satin and her bouquet was red tallsman roses. The traditional something old, something new, borrowed, blue any a penny in her shoe was carried out.

The maid-of-honor wore a gown of pale yellow acetate rayon faille with a full nylon net overskirt. Her flowers were white carnations and she wore a gold locket that was a gift from the bride.

The couple on returning from their wedding trip will be at home on a farm southeast of Orchard.
