Ethel Mae Summers

Weds Marvin Strong

(Photo at right)

Miss Ethel Mae Summers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Summers of O'Neill, became the bride of Marvin Strong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strong of Chambers, on Saturday evening, March 20, at the Wesleyan Methodist church in O'Neill. The double-ring ceremony took place in candlelight at 7 o'clock with Rev. Melvin H. Grosenbach officiating.

The candlelighters were Miss Mary Jane Summers, sister of the bride, and Miss DeMaris Strong, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Vera Ernst of O'Neill sang "The Lord's Prayer." Robert Hendricks of Atkinson sang "I Love You Truly." They were accompanied by Miss Lois Strong, sister of the bridegroom.

The bride appeared in a white gown featuring a fitted lace bodice of chantilly lace and a nylon net skirt over taffeta with a lace insert. The long sleeves tapered over the wrists. A small Peter Pan collar finished the neckline and tiny covered buttons extended down the back. Her double illusion veil of waist length was of nylon net and was held in place by a lace crown trimmed with satin and seed pearls. She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

The bridesmaid was Miss Katherine Summers, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Boyd Ressel, sisters of the bride. They wore identical ballerina length gowns of blue. They were fashioned with a fitted lace bodice, a net over taffeta skirt and a net stole.

The bridegroom was attended by Donald Strong, brother of the bridegroom, and Lyle Hornback. The bridegroom wore a suit of medium blue. The mother of the bride wore a black tulle suit with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a grey suit. Both wore deep pink rose corsages.

The ushers were Glenn Lorenz and Boyd Ressel, brothers-in-law of the bride. Glenn Lorenz, sister of the bride, had charge of the guestbook. Mrs. Walter Anson and Miss Esther Dick had charge of the gifts.

A reception for 125 relatives and friends was held in the church. The bride's table was centered with a five-tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated with deep pink roses and white bells. The candles were pink and white. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Glenn Lorenz and Mrs. Robert Cook. Others who helped with the reception were Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Miss Donna Summers, Miss DeMaris Strong, Miss Ione Ernst and Mrs. Norma Longnecker.

The bride was graduated from O'Neill high school with the class of 1953. Since that time she has taught in a rural school near Atkinson. The bridegroom graduated from the Miltonvale academy, Miltonvale, Kans., in 1953.

The young couple will make their home in O'Neill.
