

A Poem

From Mrs. Eby . . .

—Christmas Time—

Glad Christmas time is coming fast and all the world is bright. I see the crowds go drifting past, each face with joy alight, Each heart just talks to hearts and then I seem to hear them say:

"God rest ye, Merrie Gentlemen; let nothing you dismay"; And as I pass my way along through early hours and late, Amidst the ever-shifting throng, all envy, greed and hate seem banished from our hearts, and then, I know I hear them say:

"God rest ye, Merrie Gentlemen; let nothing you dismay"; "Let love fill every heart, No matter how, or where, or when, let each one have a part. In Christmas joys, and near and far let hearts be glad and gay, For Jesus Christ, our Savior was born on Christmas day";

"God rest ye, Little Children, let nothing you affright"; For all of you, may Christmas dawn in beams of rosy light, And in the joys of Christmas cheer may all of you have part, Because all men throughout the year keep Christmas in the heart.

When a wrong wants righting or a work wants doing, Or a truth wants preaching or a continent wants opening, God sends a baby into the world to do it, That is why, long, long ago a baby was born in Bethlehem. (Bariham)
