Christmas season has come and gone, and it was definitely not a white Christmas here. A little snow covered the ground late Christmas evening but the temperature stayed mild and many happy reunions were held with lots of folks returning to Clearwater for Christmas. Many made long trips to visit loved ones elsewhere.

Many country school programs were enjoyed this year, and Santa put in his appearance at most of them. The churches all presented programs and some of them special services.

Mr. and Mrs. Ried Mummert are visiting relatives in California over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jaeke and Steve spent the holiday in Texas visiting Mrs. Jaeke's parents.

Clearwater basketball game here with Bartlett Friday night proved to be a thriller all the way with the final score 60-59 in Clearwater's favor. Carl Nore was Clearwater's high point man with 30 points. Tom Patras had 11 to his credit. High point man for Bartlett was Crosley with 21. The end of the first quarter found the score, 17-17; the second quarter, 35-31, Clearwater and the third quarter, 48-47 Clearwater. It was nip and tuck all the way and spectators had an evening of fine basketball.

Dave Hale was a patient in the Tilden hospital several days last week.

Firemen were called to the Joe Goscha farm about six p.m. Monday evening where a brooder stove had started a fire in a hog house. The blaze was quickly extinguished.
