

Marylin Schmaderer Weds Jerry Wallinger At Stuart Wednesday

Miss Marylin Schmaderer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmaderer of Stuart, and Jerry Wallinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wallinger, both of Stuart, were united in marriage December 28 at the St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart.

The Rev. A. J. Paschang officiated at the 9:30 a.m. nuptial mass and double ring ceremony. Baskets of red poinsettias decorated the altar. Traditional music was played on the organ by Sister Vera.

A floor length gown of nylon tulle over bridal taffeta was chosen by the bride. The dress featured wide ruffle tiers with scalloped edges of lace up the front and back of the full skirt. The nylon bodice was highlighted by a scalloped sequin neckline. Long tapered sleeves completed the gown. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a garnet of seed pearl rose buds and net. She carried a white prayer book centered by a white orchid.

Miss Sally Brewster of Stuart was maid of honor and her street length dress was fashioned of red velvet featuring a high neckline. Three-quarter length sleeves and a full bouffant skirt were included in the dress design. Her head-dress was of white velvet leaves and net. She carried red roses on a white velvet muff.

Don Schmaderer, brother of the bride, served as best man. Denny Wallinger, brother of the bridegroom, and Jim Schmaderer, brother of the bride were ushers.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Stuart auditorium immediately following the ceremony. Misses Karen and Doris Schmaderer presided at the coffee service and punch bowl. Mrs. Alois Schmaderer cut and served the four-tier wedding cake.

In charge of the guest book was Miss Darlene Hoffman. Mrs. Gary Lockmon took care of the gift table. The Misses Beverly Wallinger, Linda Ankey, Karen Weichman and Maureen Kaup served the bridal table.

After a wedding trip to Kansas City, the couple will be at home in Omaha.

Gifts were exchanged and a lunch was served at the close of the evening. The next meeting will be held January 25 at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Richard Hill. Mrs. Mary E. Price, reporter.

EAGER BEAVERS

A demonstration on "Kinds of Soil and What Grows Best in Each" was presented by Jim Widfeldt and Tom Vequist at the regular meeting of the Eager Beavers 4-H Weed Club at District 33, school December 19.

Everyone answered roll call by showing their poster of weed seeds and telling how the seeds may be spread.

The next meeting will be held January 23.

Coxbill - Wacha Repeat Vows in Lincoln Wednesday

The marriage of Miss Audrey Gail Coxbill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coxbill of Atkinson, and Richard S. Wacha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Almir J. Wacha of Eureka, Calif., was solemnized in a high noon double ring ceremony December 28 in the chapel of St. Paul's Methodist church at Lincoln.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. W. M. Smitherman, assistant pastor of St. Paul's. Mrs. Virginia Duxbury of Lincoln was soloist and was accompanied by organist, Houghton Furr, also of Lincoln.

The bride chose for her wedding a satin gown featuring scalloped scoop neckline trimmed with Chantilly lace and embellished with sequins. The basque waistline and long sleeves tapered to bridal points, complimented her gown. A lace panel in front graced the bouffant skirt which descended into a chapel train. Her double waist length imported illusion veil fell from a half pill-box of lace and its crown front was trimmed with sequins, pearls and rhinestones. She carried pink sweetheart roses with white carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Ronald Bachman of St. Paul, who wore a Christmas green dress with matching headpiece. It featured long sleeves, scoop neck and full skirt. Her flowers were white carnations.

Mr. Wacha was attended by Frederick Gaines of Lincoln. Ushers were Gwyer Grimminger and Ronald Winter, both of Lincoln.

Candlelighters were Sharon Eoff of Lincoln and Patricia Hare of Albion.

Following the ceremony, relatives and friends were received in parlors of St. Paul's. Miss Jeanette Osborne of Atkinson took charge of the punch bowl and Miss Darla Slavy presided at the coffee service. The cake was cut by Miss Phyllis Hanson of Lincoln. At the gift table were the Misses Bonnie Clifford, Joy Dvotrak and Connie Funk, all of Atkinson. Mrs. Ronald Frickel had charge of the guest book.

After graduating from Atkinson high school, the bride attended Cotter College of Nevada, Mo. She will graduate from Nebraska Wesleyan University in Lincoln in January. She is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and Kappa Delta Pi honorary society.

The bridegroom attended Doane college at Crete and is presently attending the University of Nebraska, where he is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside at 1226 Rose Street in Lincoln.
