

Basketball Tourney, Boxing Fill Sports Week

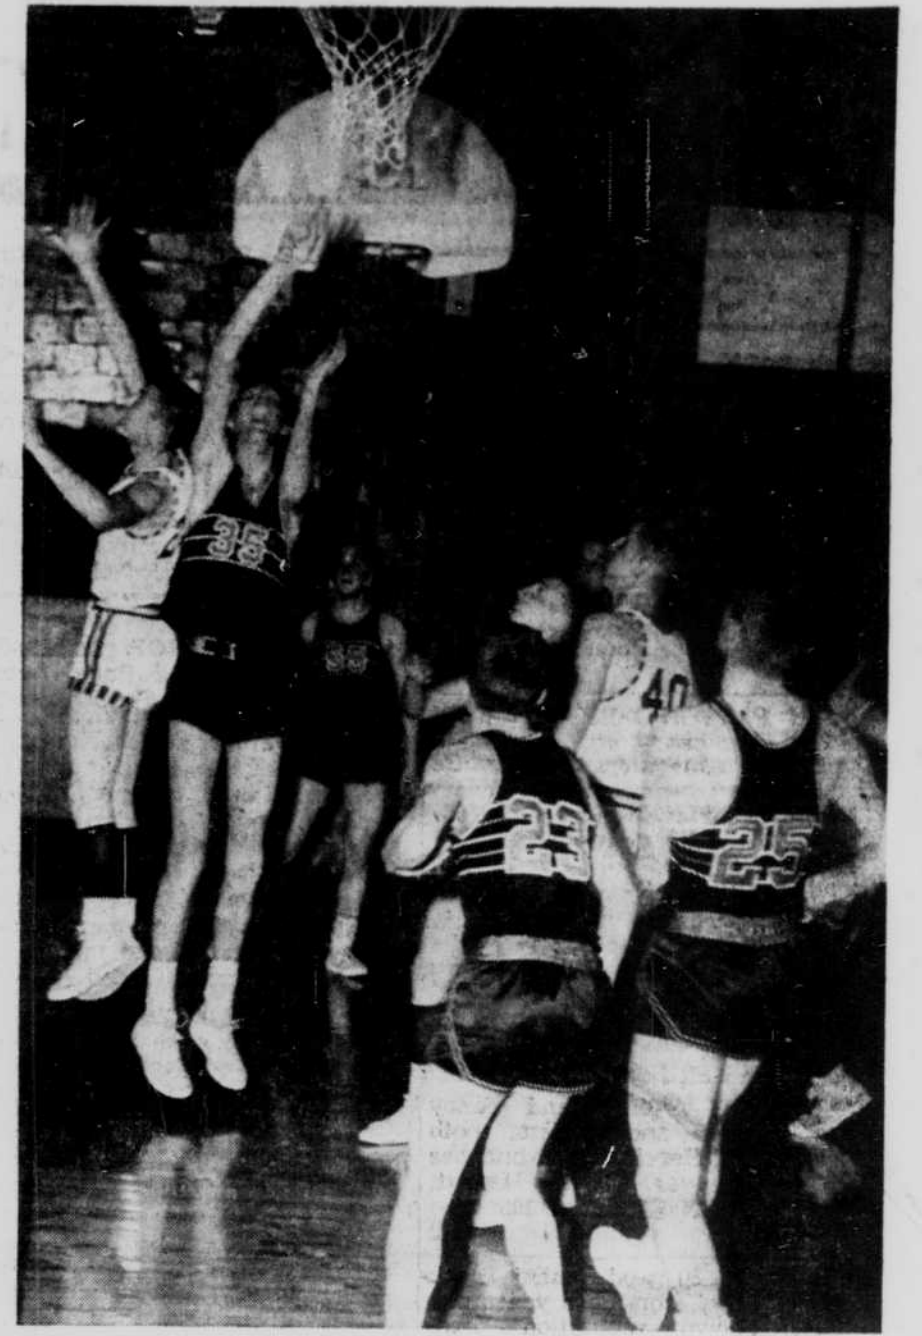

Tuesday night's second game saw St. Mary's scoring a fairly easy 56-41 victory over Atkinson. The Atkinson Balers saw four of their players leave the game during the last quarter via the foul route to make the Cardinal's win that much easier. Jerry Gokie was high point man for St. Mary's with 10 points followed by Jim Spitzberger with 9. Jim Johnson was high point man for the losers with 13, followed by Dick Gaylen and Ken Claussen with 9 points each.

The first seeded O'Neill High Eagles picked up a 62-37 win over the Ewing Tigers Monday evening in a game that saw the entire O'Neill squad in action during the game. John Kurtz, led the Eagles with 11 points followed by Rich Hill (52) with 10. Jerry Dexter (34) and Darold Ermer each had 8 points for the Eagles. Larry Noffke and Ron Brion shared scoring honors for the losers with 9 points each.

The Chambers Coyotes upset the Inman Tigers in the second game of the evening Monday, 47-46 as they came from behind in the closing minutes of the game. Dale Adams (24) led the Chambers scoring with 20 points and Larry Swanson (30) had 13. Bob Pribil (25) connected on long one-handers and driving lay-ups for a total of 18 points for the losers. Keith Kivett (35) hit for 15 points for the Tigers.

First round action in the Holt County Basketball Tournament saw the Atkinson Balers taking a 46-35 win over the Stuart Bronchos Monday night. Jim Johnson (number 35) led the Balers' scoring with 21 points while G. I. Medcalf (number 23) connected for 13. Tom Brewster had 12 points for the losers, followed by George Bigelow with 10.

EWING CHEERLEADERS: Leonora Tuttle, Judy Tinsley, Betty Wright and Linda Larson.

PAGE CHEERLEADERS: Joyce Grass, Linda Smith and Aletha Rutherford, first team; Charlene Fusselman, Diane Kemper and Connie Nissen, second team.

INMAN CHEERLEADERS: Bernice Colman, Conda Couch, Kay Kelley and Mary Morsbach.

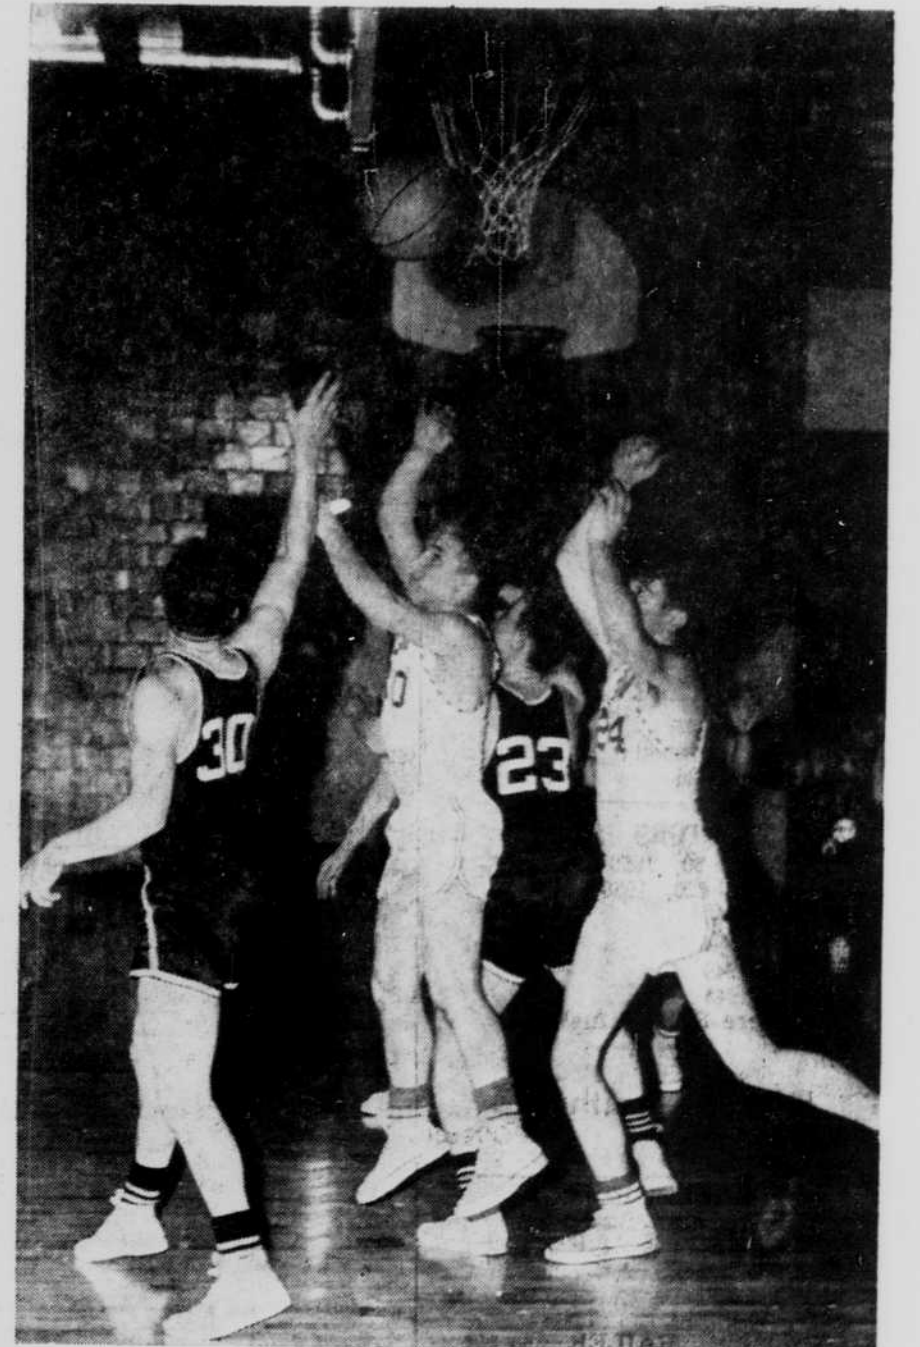

ATKINSON HIGH CHEERLEADERS: Marge Winings, Roma Fundus and Mary Alice Hill.

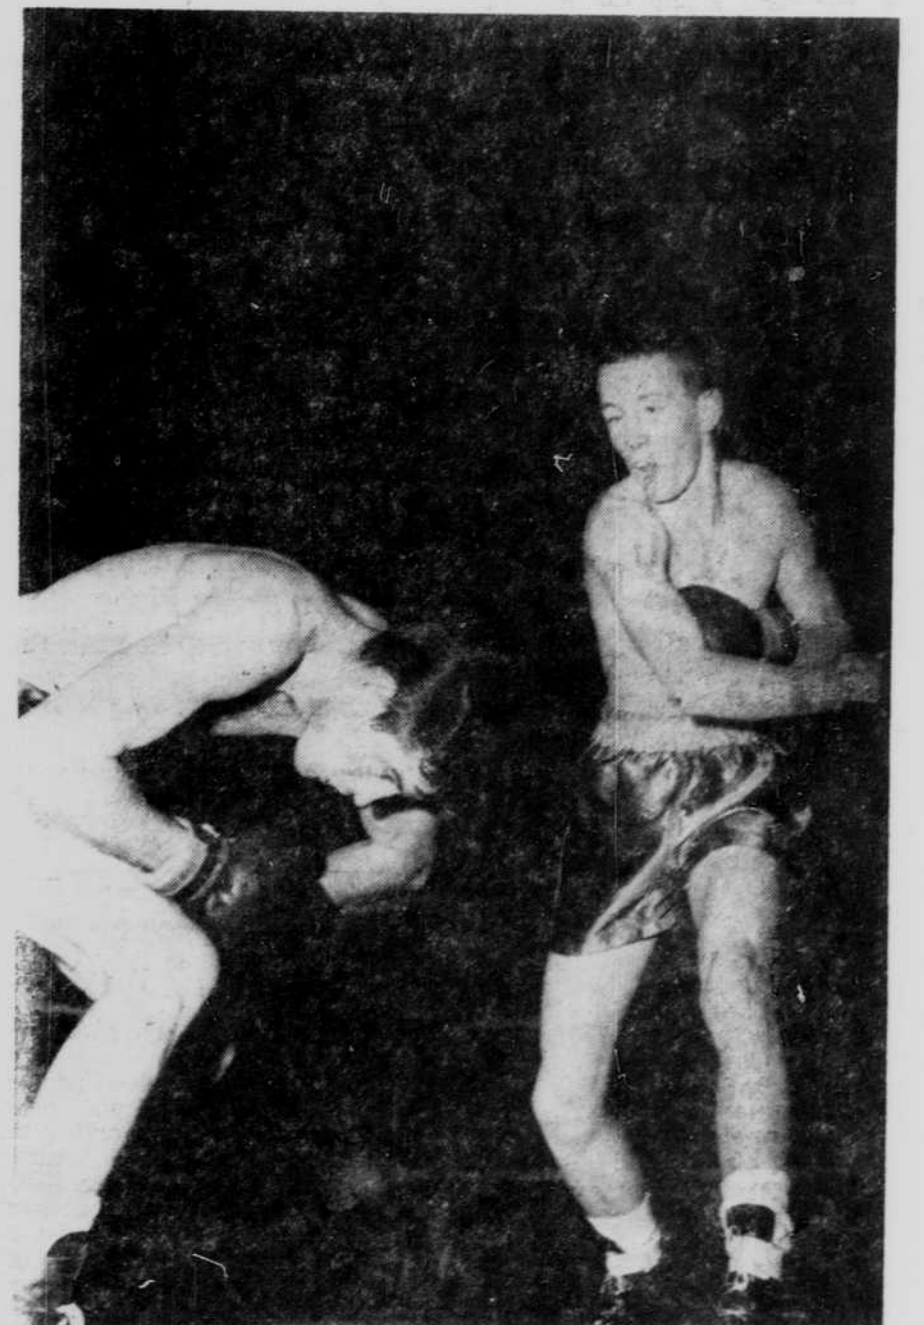

CHAMBERS CHEERLEADERS: Judy Thompson, Carol Hoffman, Judy Beed and Jeanette Klambenes.

ATKINSON ST. JOSEPH CHEERLEADERS: Maxine Pacha, Bonnie Gokie and Christine Wewel, first team; Micaela Lee, Connie Moeller and Patricia Schneider, second team.

The Page Eagles took an easy 65-48 win over St. Joseph of Atkinson Tuesday night. In a game marred by fouls and technicals, Page came back after a slow first quarter to win the game going away. Fred Cronk (30) led the Eagles with 29 points, high so far in tournament play. Rod Kennedy, Ron Asher and Dennis Ickes scored 10, 8 and 7 points respectively for Page. Mark McKay led St. Joe with 23 and Larry Judge (24) was second high with 12.

Jack McGinn, flashy O'Neill fighter, had little trouble as he won a unanimous decision over Bill Miller of South Sioux City Wednesday night in pre-golden gloves action here. McGinn, who weighs in at 118 pounds, will be fighting in the Golden Gloves at Norfolk January 24 and 25.