THE FRONTIER, O'Neill, Nebraska, Thursday, February 2, 1961

Walter Egger of O'Neill, Ancard route, is very interested in learning if a church in Switzerland built in 1187 and attended by his father, the late Peter Egger, is still standing.

The church was built of stone at Grindelwald, Switzerland and Walter thought visitors in that country might have seen the church which would be famous because of its age.

Any readers who might have information concerning the church are requested to contact Mr. Egger.
