

SAFEWAY features new "light-dark meat" idea:

"Pork 'n' Beef" Roast

PLANNED-OVER MEALS, TOO!
After serving slices of pork and beef for the first meal, you can use the meats individually for additional meals. So economical!

"Give me a slice of light and a slice of dark" need not be limited to turkey time! This new "twin" roast idea pairs a pork cut and a beef cut in the same pot. The beef imparts a succulent goodness to the pork. In turn, the beef acquires delightful flavor from the pork. Serve slices of each for the first meal. Then use the pork and beef separately for delicious planned-over meals. Try our pork-beef roast this week-end.
