Bassett Sale Yards, Bassett, Nebraska

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 1961

11 BULLS — 18 HEIFERS

All sired by our best clean bulls and out of choice carefully selected cows. The bulls will average younger and a little darker than the bulls reserved for our fall sale. However they have the quality and the breeding and none are extremely dark. Should make you money every year and when they go to market bring twice what you paid for them. Pick out a yearling bull or two to run with your milk cows. They are too young to sell or our loss should be your gain. The heifers are mostly light in color and like the bulls are of the herd improving kind. Bulls are guaranteed breeders when they reach the age of two years. It will pay you to be there March 15th.
