To Nebraskans...

... a glass of beer is many things

Since the days when the first "Iron Horse" crossed Nebraska and helped the march of civilization across the plains, the railroads have won a place in the heart of Nebraskans. So, too, has beer. It is a symbol of the good life. It belongs with good living.

But more than that, beer means a good livelihood for more than 9,000 Nebraskans. In 1960 the Brewing Industry helped the state economy by paying more than $4,000,000.00 in taxes. To Nebraskans a glass of beer is many things!
