Youngs Honored On Anniversary

PAGE — Mr. and Mrs. Ben Young of Oakland, who formerly resided on a farm located between Page and Orchard, observed their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Members of their family and friends joined the honored couple for the day which started with church services at the Methodist church in Oakland. Following this the group adjourned to the church basement for a noon dinner and program. The Rev. R. O. Lowtham gave the prayer at the conclusion of the program.

In the evening a four-way hook-up was established and a double phone connection was installed to make possible a telephone visit with their son, Forrest of Rochester, Ind., and their daughters, Mrs. Scott West of Waynesboro, Miss., and Mrs. Florence Anderson of Las Vegas, Nev.

Present for Sunday's affair were the following members of

Mr. and Mrs. Young's family: Mr. and Mrs. George M. Young, Georgeann, Suzanne, Tim and Linda of Uhing; Mr. and Mrs. Chris F. Young and daughters, Barbara and Diane of Tekamah; and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Corbin, Phillip, Cathy, Danny and Lydia Sue of Craig. Also attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Lowtham and longtime friends of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Neven D. Ickes sr., of Page.

Benjamin F. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Young of Craig, and Lydia M. Fries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Fries, also of Craig, were married March 22, 1911 at North Bend. The Rev. W. L. Elliott officiated at the ceremony. John and Mary Fries and George and Ethel Young were attendants.

A wedding supper was served at the home of the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Frank Lillie. The weather became severe and the wedding part was snowed in at the Lillie home two weeks before train service was resumed.

Mr. and Mrs. Young farmed for 30 years, 10 of which were in Holt county.
