

Carolyn Schmeichel Weds James Larson

Miss Carolyn Schmeichel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schmeichel, and James Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larson, were married Friday evening at the United Presbyterian church parsonage in Ewing.

Dr. William H. Ross performed the ceremony.

The bride chose a white lace street length dress, styled with full skirt, fitted bodice and chiffon trimmed neckline. Her short veil was caught by a headband. She wore an orchid corsage.

Her attendants, Miss Susan Burney and Miss B. Morrow, wore similar full skirted dresses in lavender and aqua shades, respectively, and small hats. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Dean Larson, brother of the bridegroom, and Stanley Schmeichel, brother of the bride, attended the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill public high school and is presently employed as secretary in the offices of Superintendent Milton Baack.

Mr. Larson graduated from O'Neill public high school and is attending Norfolk Junior college. After a wedding trip to Kansas City, Kan., the couple returned to O'Neill where they will make their home this summer, following the close of the school season.

New Home

CELIA—Mr. and Mrs. Omer Poynts have returned from Concord, Calif., and will move into their new home on the fox farm northwest of Atkinson on the Stuart-Naper road.

Mr. Poynts will be employed by Ed Webber and Terry Wilson.

They were accompanied here by their grandson, Johnny House, who assisted them with the driving. He plans to make an indefinite stay here. Mr. and Mrs. Poynts and Johnny are staying in the Mark Hendricks home at the present time.

THE CIGAR STORE INDIAN shown above (left) will be the symbol of the J. C. Penney Company's fifty-ninth anniversary. Stores across the nation will observe the event April 6-22, tying the cigar store Indian into their advertising and store decorations. The O'Neill Penney store will open festivities Thursday morning with a breakfast for employees and a contest for the most "Indian-like" costume, Manager J. E. Enke said. The miss at the right in the photo was not identified, but she does add interest to the picture. Now a relic of by-gone days the wooden Indian was common when J. C. Penney founded the company in 1902 in Kemmerer, Wyo.
