

Ellen Havranek, Mark Feringer Wed at Emmet

ATKINSON — Before an altar decorated with white and lavender garden flowers and ferns, a nuptial rite was performed Thursday, June 29, at 10 a.m. in the Church of Epiphany, Emmet, uniting in marriage Miss Ellen M. Havranek, Atkinson, and Mark E. Feringer, Bloomfield. The Rev. Ralph O'Donnell officiated at the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Havranek. Mr. and Mrs. William Feringer, Bloomfield, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bob Morgan, sister of the bridegroom, was soloist, and was accompanied by Miss Bonnie Clifford, organist.

A floor length gown of nylon sheer over tulle and satin was chosen by the bride. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. Jeweled applique of imported alencon lace was featured on the bodice front and scoop neckline, and scattered over the full gathered skirt. A large butterfly bow adorned the back. Her double veil of French illusion was caught to a miniature queen's crown, bejeweled with imported borealis crystal and seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book, and a crystal rosary.

Miss Jeanette Feringer, Bloomfield, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Nelson, O'Neill, and Miss Patricia Dvorak. They were gowned alike in street length dresses of lavender nylon sheer over taffeta with scooped necklines and cap sleeves. The bodices had cummerbunds with bows in front. Their headpieces were crowns of lavender sequins with small matching veils. White accessories completed their ensembles. Each attendant carried a purple double wedding ring arrangement of lavender pompons.

Stanley Feringer, Bloomfield, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Fuhrer, Lincoln, and Gordon Fehring, Bloomfield, brother of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Francis Havranek, O'Neill, and Norbert Fehring, Houston, Tex., brother of the bridegroom.

Erin Havranek, O'Neill, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Billy Fehring, Bloomfield.

Over 200 guests attended the luncheon at St. Michael's hall, Emmet. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Frank Farnik and Mrs. Joe L. Sladek. Mrs. Robert H. Clifford presided at the coffee service, and Miss Pat Allen, served punch. Mrs. Terry Wanser had charge of the guest book. The gifts were arranged by Miss Lorelei Sanders. Mrs. Bernard Newton and Mrs. Matt Kauth, waitresses were the Misses Dotty Havranek, Shirley Fuhrer, Joy Dvorak, Mary and Madeline Richards, Helen Marie and Emily Dusatko, Ruth Schaf and Lu Ann Babl. Assisting with refreshments were Mesdames Ken Huston, Al Kloppenberg, John Babl, Joe Babl, Jim Conway, Ray Richards, William Malen, Tom Welch, Jess Willis, Bernard Pongratz, and Dusatko.

The bride attended St. Mary's academy in O'Neill. She has been employed by the O'Neill National Bank and has also served as organist at the Church of Epiphany over four years.

Mr. Fehring attended Bloomfield high school, and has served two years in the armed forces. He is presently engaged in farming at Bloomfield where the couple will reside after a wedding trip to Illinois, Michigan and Minnesota.

officiated at the marriage ceremony. Mrs. Dwight Kirchner was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Lowell Herley.

A waltz length gown of nylon tulle and French lace was chosen by the bride. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. Natural scallops of lace, embroidered with pearls and sequins highlighted the Sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt of tulle ruffles was accented with an apron effect panel of border lace. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a small jeweled crown. Her bouquet was an arrangement of red roses.

Miss Sharon Michael, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and another sister of the bride, Mrs. Rodney Charf, Neligh, was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of blue sheer nylon over taffeta with cummerbund of embroidered sequins. They wore matching hats of net and white ribbons.

Tom Patras, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Jerry McKillip was groomsmen. Ushering were Jerry Hahbeck, Norfolk, and Rodney Charf, Neligh.

Steve Patras, Plattsmouth, and Billy Michael, were candlelighters.

A reception was held following the ceremony, attended by 200 guests. Mrs. Donald Snider, Cole-drige, served as hostess. Mrs. Walter Westerhoff baked and served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Walt Lang served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Ilene Schmitz presided at the coffee service. Serving punch were Mrs. Jerry Hahbeck, Norfolk, and Miss Joyce Anderson. Mrs. Sterling Legate and the Misses Betty Tinsley, Jeanette Schrage and Lois Moser arranged the gifts. Mrs. James Lutzal, Ewing had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Jerry McKillip took care of the flowers. Servers were Mrs. Jim Good, Ewing, Miss Judy Felsing, Omaha, Miss Peggy Patras, Plattsmouth, and Miss Sharon Twiss.

The bride graduated from Clearwater high school and the Norfolk Beauty school. She has been employed by Ilene's Beauty school.

Mr. Patras attended Clearwater high school and Norfolk Junior college. He is presently employed at Wells Dental Lab in Norfolk, where the couple will reside at 509 South 6th Street.

Dianne Pavlik Weds Donald G. McElhose

VERDIGRE — Miss Dianne F. Pavlik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vennie Pavlik, was united in marriage June 25 at 4 p.m. to Donald Gene McElhose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McElhose, all of Verdigre, in the local ZCBJ hall.

The Rev. David T. Gustafson, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar fashioned on the stage, and decorated with arch, lighted candelabra and baskets of gladioli and asters. Mrs. Rudolph Pavlik jr., was pianist and Ted D. Ward was soloist.

The bride appeared in a bridal gown fashioned of silk organza and handclipped rose point lace over mist taffeta. The slim sculptured bodice was styled with a semi-scoop neckline overlaid with jewel encrusted lace and brief sleeves similarly detailed. The bouffant floor length skirt fell from a petal waistline and flowed into a chapel train. Appliques of lace embroidered with seed pearls and iridescents were scattered over the skirt. The bustle length veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a queen's crown. She carried a semicrescent bouquet of an orchid and stephanotis.

Sister of the bridegroom, Miss Donna Kaye McElhose, was maid of honor. Miss Rosemary Marshall and Miss Jeanette Pavlik were bridesmaids. The attendants wore ballerina length gowns of silk mist organza in shades of lilac, Nile and maize. The empire bodices were of Chantilly lace, designed with short sleeves and portrait necklines. The skirts were cut on a princess line, full swirl, with back inserts and a series of French bows. They wore cap style headclips of organza leaves in matching colors, and carried baskets of white carnations.

Ronnie Pavlik, brother of the bride, was best man, and Jerry McElhose, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsmen. Arnold Miller and Archie Juracek were ushers and candlelighters.

Miss Jan Jerman was flower girl, and Michael McElhose, Norfolk, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement of the hall for 300 guests. Mrs.

CLEARWATER — Miss Margaret Mary Funk and Jerome Thoen-del were married at the St. John Catholic church near Clearwater Saturday morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Funk. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thoen-del.

Walter Pavlik and Mrs. Clarence Kucera cut the four-tier wedding cake. Mrs. Archie Juracek presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Tony C. Paesl and Mrs. Ludvick Ellis served as hostesses. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Ted O. Yager, and caring for the gift table were Miss Judy Jacot, Miss Rita Vecera and Miss Ilene Mlady. Tony C. Chocholousek and Laurance Mastair served at the refreshment table, assisted by Richard Novacek and Jerald Tichy. The Misses Kathy Kucera, Betty Kucera, Jeannette Marshall, Pennie Jerman, Patty Dittrick, Annette Uhlir, Barbara Boelter and Sonia Prokop were waitresses. Mesdames William Kalal, William R. Fosterman, Joe Davis, Anton Dobry and Martha Mlady assisted in the kitchen.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Verdigre high school with the class of 1950. The bride is employed at the Ritz Beauty shop and Mr. McElhose is employed by his father.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside three miles west of Verdigre. Prior to leaving on their trip, the couple were hosts at a wedding dance in the hall.

Janice Charf, Terry Storm Wed at Royal

ROYAL — Miss Janice Gay Charf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Charf, and Terry E. Storm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Storm, all of Royal, were married Friday, June 30, at 8 p.m. in the Methodist church in Royal.

The Rev. Duane Lenz officiated in the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of assorted flowers, sprays of orchid and white gladioli and branched candelabra. Mrs. Dale Weber provided traditional wedding music at the piano.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace and misty tulle. Natural scallops of lace, embroidered with sequins, framed the Sabrina neckline of lace and the three-quarter length tapered sleeves. The deep V of the snug fitting basque bodice of satin dipped in the full skirt of hand cut lace panels dividing ruffles of nylon tulle. A large hoop enhanced the style of the gown. The veil of French illusion was caught by a crown of white sequins. She carried an arrangement of folwers centered with an orchid.

Miss Marlene Rader was maid of honor and she was attired in a full skirted ballerina length dress of orchid organza with matching tiara and veil. She carried a semi-cascade arrangement of white carnations tipped with orchid.
