This Is the Challenge

America came into being through a challenge... a challenge of oppression from without that caused the Declaration of Independence to be brought forth, with its immortal words: "We hold these truths to be self evident"...

Today, America faces a far more formidable challenge... the challenge of a Godless foe that would seek to engulf us and destroy us. The challenge of Communism and its motive of world domination are things we cannot run away from, just as our forefathers could not run away from tyranny. The challenge must be met head-on.

And in that meeting, we must be strong; we must be united. We must resolve that "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness"... the unalienable rights that formed the backbone of the Declaration of Independence... are just as precious to us and just as worthy of preservation today as they were to our fellow Americans who formulated that great doctrine many years ago.

Nor can we forget that our foe is a dedicated one, convinced that its cause is right, if not honorable. We must be even more dedicated... our cause is right AND honorable. We recognize the endowment of our rights upon us by Almighty God... our Communist foe recognizes no Supreme power but itself. We must be strong, we must be dedicated, we must be sincere.

This is the Challenge...
