Beverly Cihlar Weds Earl Miller In O'Neill Ceremony

Miss Beverly Cihlar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cihlar, Verdigré, became the bride of Earl R. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, O'Neill, in a 5:30 p.m. candlelight service Sunday, July 30, in the Christ Lutheran church, O'Neill.

Performing the service was the Rev. A. S. Gedwillo. Mrs. Frank Cernousek presented vocal arrangements, accompanied by Miss Janet Krugman at the organ.

The bride appeared in a floor length gown of Calais lace over ruffles of contoured nylon net on fine Italian silk. It was designed with high lace banded neck-line, and sleeves which ended in points at the wrists. Her veil of silk French illusion was attached to a Victorian crown. She carried a floral arrangement of yellow roses and white carnations. For something traditionally old, the bride wore a small bracelet of her grandmother's, Mrs. Cihlar, which was over 50 years old.

Miss Ardee Block, Erie, Penn., was maid of honor and she was attired in a white sheer eyelet over yellow taffeta dress with matching accessories. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Christ, Corvallis, Ore., sister of the bride, and Miss Carolyn Walker, Grand Island. They wore dresses styled identically to that of the maid of honor, except in aqua shades. Their flowers were large white mums with ribbons corresponding to the shade of their dresses.

Harold Miller, O'Neill, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Wallace Cihlar, Verdigré, brother of the bride, and Dale Bellin, O'Neill, were groomsmen. Seating the guests were Melvin Miller, Niobrara, brother of the bridegroom, and Floyd Kinnison, Verdigré.

Sherie Cihlar, Verdigré, was flower girl, and Randy Christ, Corvallis, Ore., was ring bearer.

At the reception following the ceremony, the wedding cake was cut by Mrs. John Kain, Quemo, Kan., and Mrs. Ted Kinnison, Verdigré. The coffee was poured by Mrs. Bill Touche, Erie, Penn. Miss Patty Dittick kept the guest book, and the gift table was arranged by Mrs. Wallace Cihlar and Mrs. Dale Bellin. Serving the bride's table were the Misses Annette Uhler and Ellen Dryak. Assisting with refreshments were Mesdames Fred Timmerman, Ben Miller, M. E. Davis, Alfred Cernousek, Paul Cihlar and Freeman Arbo.

The bride attended school in the Verdigré public high school, and Mr. Miller attended O'Neill public high school. He presently is engaged in farming near O'Neill.

was matron of honor. Mrs. Gaylord Enyort, Amarillo, Tex., was bridesmaid. They wore waltz length taffeta gowns, the former's in blue, and the latter in white. Their bouquets were of carnations.

Sherman Thurlow, brother of the bride, served as best man. Groomsman was Wayne Root, Atkinson. Robert Dahl and Lyle Peterson, both of Fremont, were ushers.

The Misses Veronica Thurlow and Jacqueline Thiel, Cedar Bluffs, were candlelighters.

One hundred guests attended the reception in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mesdames Wilmer Lickenburg, Roma Schere and Leroy Settles were in charge of the reception. Miss Janet Villwalk and Miss Arlene Anderson were in charge of the gift table and Miss Sandy Cockeran managed the guest book. Serving the bride's table were the Misses Karen Wild, Marcia Moody and Sandra Soderling. Waitresses were the Misses Rosella Lickenburg, Sheryl McCauley, Linda Peterson, Rita Wittherhouse and Barbara Lubker.

The couple is at home at 433 West Sixth street, Fremont.

Bonita Wolf, Charles Cox Exchange Vows

CHAMBERS—Miss Bonita Wolf, Ord, and Charles Cox Jr., Broken Bow, were united in marriage at the Chambers Methodist church at 3 p.m. Sunday, July 30, in the presence of the immediate family.

The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Cox, Chambers and his father performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with seasonal flowers arranged by Mrs. Herman Holcomb.

The bride appeared in a white brocaded dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white gladioli.

Her attendant, Mrs. Bill Cox, Lincoln, wore a pale green dress and carried a bouquet of gladioli. Bill Cox attended the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony the group returned to the parsonage for refreshments.

The couple left on a short trip and after their return will make their home in Broken Bow, where Mr. Cox is manager of the Roman Motor Freight terminal.

Barbara Notson Weds G. Stowell

A double ring ceremony was performed July 23 at the First Methodist church here uniting in marriage Miss J. Barbara Notson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Notson, Shenandoah, Ia., and Gary D. Stowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stowell, O'Neill. Performing the ceremony at 3 p.m. was the Rev. Glenn Kennicott. Miss Susan Burney was soloist, and was accompanied by Miss Janet Krugman at the organ.

The bride chose a white chiffon street length dress with lace jacket. Her veil was of fingertip length. She carried white carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Donna Notson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Peggy Notson, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Dixie Duncan, Waterloo, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of eyelet, street length, and were in shades of white, pink and yellow. Respectively. They carried ivy heart shaped bouquets with carnations in the center to match their dress colors.

Dick Laursen served as best man. Groomsman were Darrell Clyde and Dean Larson. Bob Eby and Curt Larson seated the guests.

Miss Vickie Schindler, Omaha, was flower girl, and Mike Carlson, Essex, Ia., was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Marilyn and Larry Davis. Following the ceremony a reception was attended by 100 guests in the church basement. Mrs. Rex Stowell and Miss Nancy Rice poured. Mrs. Earl Carlson and Mrs. Wade Davis cut and served the wedding cake. Arranging the gifts were Miss Peggy Sullivan and Mrs. Lois Notson.

The bride attended Shenandoah high school, and has been employed as secretary for the Northwestern Bell Telephone company. Mr. Stowell is a graduate of O'Neill high school.

After November 1 the couple will be at home in O'Neill.
