

Jean E. Allyn, Duane E. Burton Exchange Vows

STUART — Baskets of white and red gladioli decorated the Cleveland church Sunday, Aug. 27, for the wedding of Miss Jean E. Allyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Allyn, Stuart, and Duane E. Burton, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Stenzel sr., Superior.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Herbert Young. Traditional wedding music was provided by the vocalist, Calvin McClurg, Broken Bow, and the pianist, Miss Lois Anderson, Geneva.

The bride's dress, made by Mrs. Robert Zink Lincoln, was designed with scalloped neckline and caped sleeves of nylon lace. The bodice was embroidered with embossed white pearls and sequins. Her full skirt featured a flounce covered with white pearls and sequins. She carried white gladioli centered with deep pink rose buds.

Miss Vivian Berger, Upland, was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Calvin McClurg, Broken Bow, sister of the bride. They were attired in street length dresses of blue which the attendants had made. They carried bouquets of white gladioli.

Walter Russell, Lincoln, served as best man. Groomsman was Zoroldean Stenzel, Wakeeney, Kan. Ushering were Calvin Allyn, brother of the bride, and Richard Keidel.

Twin sisters, Sally and Susan Caster, Sidney, were flower girls. Following the ceremony, 125 guests attended the reception in the basement of the church. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Warren McClurg, Bassett and Mrs. Arlin Caster, Sidney. Mrs. Robert Zink poured coffee, and Mrs. Elmer Allyn served punch. Mrs. Herbert Sweet served the sherbet. Mrs. Richard Jones, Ainsworth, presided at the guest book, and Mrs. Charles Bagley, Superior, Miss Donna McClurg and Miss Doris Smith were in charge of the gift table.

The bride attended Atkinson high school, and is a senior at the University of Nebraska Teachers college where she is majoring in speech and dramatics.

Mr. Stenzel is a graduate of Superior high school and is also a senior at the University where he is majoring in music.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside in Lincoln.
