

Lichtys Feted At Royal on Golden Wedding

ROYAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lichty, living six miles northeast of Royal, were married 65 years ago Wednesday, Aug. 30, and in observance of this occasion, will be honored at a picnic dinner at the city park in Plainview Sunday.

The event is being planned by their sons, Harmon, Elmer and Perry and families. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lichty were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Heiter, August 30, 1896 with the Rev. S. W. Baer, Brunswick officiating. Their attendants, George Mitchell and Dadie Weaver, were married also at a later date.

The first two years of their marriage they lived with her parents and then went on a farm by themselves. In 1904 they moved to their present home where they have lived for 57 years. The couple has six grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Mr. Lichty was 84 August 18 and Mrs. Lichty celebrated her 88th birthday August 22. Mr. Lichty has three brothers, Duall, John and Robert, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Anson, all living on farms in the same vicinity. Mrs. Lichty has one brother, Francis Heiter, O'Neill, who with his wife, celebrated the 62nd anniversary of their marriage.

Royal News

By Mrs. R. J. Hering

Harry Smith has returned from Lincoln where he had been a patient in the Veteran's hospital for several weeks. Mrs. Smith had been in Lincoln with relatives during her husband's hospitalization and accompanied him home.

Mrs. Edna Johnston, Mrs. Clayton Meisner and daughter, Mrs. W. J. Reece, Jolene Piek and Mrs. R. J. Hering were Plainview visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Laetitia Snyde, Lincoln, high school instructor in Royal, arrived Saturday and will make her home with Mrs. Mabel Meyer during the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Meisner and family were dinner guests Sunday at the Harold Piersol home south of Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Montgo-played in the Sheridan schools will wait here to return home with her husband.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rundquist entertained at dinner Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thomsen and three daughters, Dwight Morrison and Frankie and Barbara, who will leave during the week to continue studies at college in Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rundquist and daughter, Priscilla. Glenda Fae Thomsen will return to college in Wayne. Frankie Morrison is a student at the Agricultural college at the University and Barbara is a senior at Wesleyan.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barton, Orchard, and their daughter, Mrs. Noel Lautenschlager and family, Greg Wade and Roger Alan, Colorado Springs, called upon Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hering Sunday evening.

Last Weeks News—

Mrs. Mabel Briggs, who left the Royal vicinity 54 years ago, returned this week for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Briggs came with Mr. and Mrs. Lute Thurber, who were returning to Royal following a trip to their home in Iowa. Mrs. Briggs will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer to Boulder, Colo., to visit a sister at Frederick, Colo., and return to Iowa with Bauers when they return home. Mrs. Briggs will be remembered as Mabel Howard. Mrs. Briggs stated that she lives on an 80-acre farm which she cares for herself. She raised 11 children, six of her own and five step-children.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Klabenes, Chambers, called on Mrs. C. F. Storm Saturday while returning home from Wayne where Mrs. Klabenes had been attending summer school. She will be employed in the Chambers school again this year.

Mrs. Stanley Johnston, Ree Heights, S. D., and daughter, Mrs. Joannie Ulmer and little daughter, Phoenix, Ariz., visited Mrs. Edna Johnston, Mrs. Wayne Walmer and Mrs. Clayton Meisner and families over the weekend and then returned to Ree Heights. Randy Johnston took part in the rodeo at Chambers.

Mrs. Edna Johnston and Mrs. Wayne Walmer attended the cantata at the Community church in Brunswick Sunday night.

Mrs. Blanche Lingenfelter, who has been ill, is recuperating at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Merle Lichty.

Dorsey News

By Mrs. Harold Osborn

The children of Mrs. Rose Rundquist, Newman Grove, held a family reunion Sunday at the Elwin Rundquist home with dinner at the new auditorium. Present were the families of Dr. Russell Rundquist, Columbus; Gay Rundquist, Sloan, Ia.; Del, Storm Lake, Ia.; Dean, who came from California and who is moving to Ohio, and the Orin Mann family, Farragut, Ia. There were 31 present.

Mrs. Floyd Foreman, Tekamah, and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Green, Columbus, called at the R. J. Hering home Wednesday. Mrs. Foreman lived for many years in the Venus neighborhood following the death of her husband, and then moved to Creighton where her sons operated a lumber yard before selling out and locating in Albion. It is Mrs. Foreman's granddaughter who recently was selected as "Miss Nebraska". From Royal, Mrs. Foreman and her daughter were going to the Venus community, and then were to return to Albion where a banquet was to be held for "Miss Nebraska" before she left for Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan and Billy Keete, Bremerton, Wash., are her on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holm. Mrs. Bryan was employed in the Royal schools for several years. She is now employed in the Bremerton schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Storm and son, Gary, returned Saturday from a trip to San Bernardino, Calif., where they visited the Elwin Dikeman family, long-time residents of the Royal vicinity. Edwin is employed as a mail carrier. The vacationers also visited relatives and went sight-seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirby, Sheridan, Wyo., came last week to visit his father, Truman Kirby, and his sister, Mrs. Walter Beutler, and family. Kenneth was taken ill shortly after arriving and was admitted to Antelope Memorial hospital Saturday. Mrs. Kirby is employed in the school at Sheridan where she has taught many years. Enroute to Royal, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy McLain at Lusk, former Royal residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Herb and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mittels went to Sioux City Saturday night to see the dog races.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Burch safely reached their home in Kent, Wash. Deanna Anson accompanied her aunt to Washington to make a brief visit before the opening of school in Norfolk Junior college.

Mrs. Ozro Dean and two sons, Ontario, Calif., and Mrs. Dean's mother, Mrs. Al Dierking, Chambers, were in Royal Saturday afternoon calling on friends while on the way to Wayne to visit Mrs. William Pfeil, remembered here as Agnes Feyerherm. Mrs. Dean, Mabel Feyerherm to her friends here, grew to maturity in Royal and was graduated with the class of 1937. Mr. Dean was employed in the school here during the late 1930's. Mrs. Dean attended school in Wayne where she completed a normal training course before her marriage. She is now employed in the schools at Ontario. Mr. Dean accompanied his family as far as Broken Bow where he is visiting relatives. The family will return home early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Odum attended a dinner and meeting at the Steak House in Laurel Tuesday, sponsored by a seed company.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Curtis and family, Hopkins, Minn., were recent guests of relatives in the vicinity, including his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Curtis, and also Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Curtis.

Evelyn accompanied them home after attending a baseball game in Kansas City Saturday. Evelyn went with Betty Classen and other relatives including her grandfather, George Barta.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Crawford and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Svatos and Arlin and Douglas were callers at the Osborn home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn and Ruth were Wednesday evening supper guests at the Arthur Greene home in Lynch.

Rodrick Hughes spent last week at Norfolk helping at the Rolland Hughes home. Lon Stoffer, who had been visiting at the R. L. Hughes home returned home with him.

Monowi News

By Mrs. Mike Pikkapp

LOCUST 9-2520

Mrs. Virgil Sherman, Leslie, Jeri and Kelly, Sioux City, Ia., were Thursday overnight guests in the Pikkapp home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McManigal and Mark attended a family picnic at the Niobrara park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Maxwell took Lt. Col. Keith Eller to Omaha Saturday where he boarded a plane Sunday for New York to begin a tour of duty at the Pentagon, Washington, D. C., September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McGeorge and boys, M. E. McGeorge and Orval Lewis were business callers in Niobrara Monday morning.

Herman Heiser was a business caller at the Frank and Henry Vican home Monday morning.

Sid Baker, Lynch, was a visitor here Monday.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and daughter, Norfolk, is spending the week here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and Orval and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kolar and Mary visited in the Gerald Lee home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Maxwell and Kay and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family visited in the Pikkapp home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lyle Nelson and son, Lee, Verdigris, visited in the Genser home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were business callers in Norfolk Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Sieler and girls returned home Friday after a two-week vacation.

Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

The public auction of household goods of the late Arthur Waldman was held Saturday afternoon in Amelia. The house and lots were purchased earlier by Sam Gilman. Sam bought it for his niece, Mrs. Ted Price, who in turn will make it a home for her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Adair.

The school term began Monday for many of the districts in the vicinity. Jerald McClenahan, Chambers, and Mrs. Orland Fry, rear are teaching in the Amelia school, Miss Arlis Edwards at Swan Laken and Mr. Harold Furler in the John Mohr Jr. district.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale Kennedy, Norfolk, spent their vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Kennedy, and Harold, and with her relatives at Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parkins, Dale and Elwood, Taylor, Mrs. Hazel Hartman, Ravenna and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Collier and family, Arcadia, were Sunday dinner guests at Tenus Madsens.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Waldo, Cheyenne, Wyo., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Waldo. Their daughter, Judy, who has been visiting here the past month, returned home with them Monday.

Glenn White and daughter, Venita, went to Omaha Saturday to take a load of household goods for Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bakley. Mr. and Mrs. Bakley moved to their new apartment in Omaha Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Tileman, Boise, Ida., and Chris Madsen, Burwell, visited at Tenus Madsens Monday. Mr. Tileman lived in the Amelia vicinity many years ago and was well acquainted with the late Rhody Adams.

Gale Fix and daughter, Sheila, Scottsbluff, came Friday and visited over the weekend with his parents, the Elmer Fixes, and other relatives. His sons, Gaylen and Larry, who have spent the summer here with their uncle, Dean Prewitt and family, will return home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gilman went to Denver last weekend and will visit until after Labor Day with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Clauson. Mrs. Gilman's sister, Mrs. Craig Baker, also lives in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees are visiting their son, Bob Rees and family, in Denver this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Sammons visited at Ernie Johnstons Tuesday morning. The Sammons left early Wednesday morning for their home at Kimberly, Ida.

Mrs. Frank Pierce called on Mrs. Julia White Tuesday at her home in Atkinson. Mrs. White's daughter, Mrs. Frank Bradford, Spearfish, S. D., was also visiting there. She planned Wednesday to take her mother home with her for a couple months visit. Mrs. White had been hospitalized a few days earlier.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sladek and family attended the wedding of Miss Sladek's niece, Theresa Pribil, in O'Neill Monday morning.

Sam Gilman, T. S. Doolittle, Blake Ott and Ralph Rees were fishing near Bonesteel, S. D. during the week.

Mrs. Gertrude Marcellus and Mrs. Francis Curran, O'Neill, were Amelia callers Thursday. They visited a short time with the Landseys and Mrs. Bertha Sammons.

Mrs. Clyde Widman and Marcia visited at Link Sagesers Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees were O'Neill callers Thursday.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Backhaus Tuesday evening to help Lew celebrate his birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. Bower Sageser and Sandra left Sunday afternoon for their home in Manhattan, Kan. They have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Link Sageser, and other relatives. His father, Link Sageser, has not been feeling well.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marcellus,

Mrs. Emmett Carr, Karen and Charlie left Monday morning for their homes in California. They have been here to visit relatives and to dispose of the property of their father, the late Arthur Waldman.

Eleven women gathered at the home of Mrs. Doris Baker Wednesday for a surprise party for her. Mrs. Baker was married Saturday to Ernest Lane, Newport, and will make her home in Newport.

Mrs. Floyd Adams is back again on the job as mail-carrier after an absence of three or four months due to illness. She made the route for the first time Friday.

Don Adams began his term Wednesday as teacher in the Lone Tree District northeast of Chambers.

Mrs. Maude Forbes helped in her daughter's, Mrs. Paul Briggs, home during last week while the Briggs were in the hayfield.

St. Joseph's Catholic church held the annual smorgasbord at Amelia Sunday evening. There was a large crowd present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Oetter, Lana and Janeth attended the Mission Festival at the Lutheran church in Chambers Sunday.

Mrs. Bob Adair and infant daughter, Jean Annette, returned home Sunday from the Atkinson hospital. Bob's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Adair, assisted in the Adair home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schmit and family, McLean, visited her mother, Mrs. Helen Pokorny, and Don Sunday and attended the smorgasbord in Amelia Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Forbes, Gerald and Leslie, Fort Collins, Colo., were dinner guests Monday at Guy Blakes. They have been here since Thursday with their parents in Atkinson. Their son, Gerald, has been here during the summer working in the hayfield.

Mrs. Merrill Smith, Atkinson, and the former Barbara Zalud, California, visited Mrs. Bob Kalb, Tyler, Tex., Sunday morning at the B. W. Waldo home. The women were all classmates when attending Atkinson high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Tenus Madsen and their daughter, Mrs. Gerald Collier, Arcadia, attended the funeral of Mr. Madsen's uncle, William Madsen at Wolbach, August 19.

Mrs. Doris Baker was a guest of the Landseys for supper Wednesday evening.

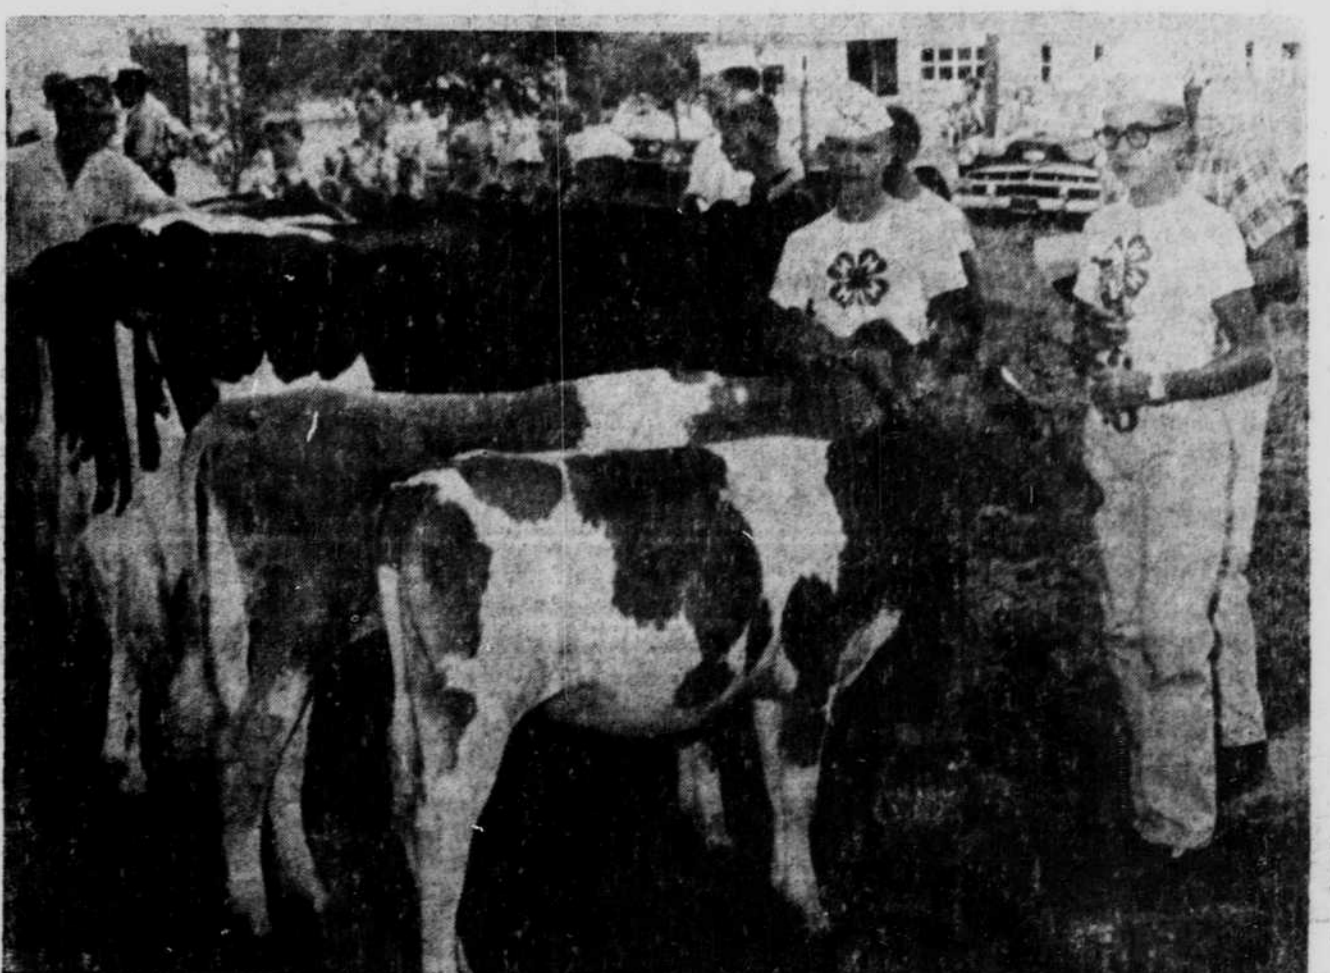

The Rev. and Mrs. Bob Kalb, Kathy, Kurt and Karla, left Wednesday morning for their home at Tyler, Tex., after a short visit here with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Waldo and other relatives.

LARRY SKRDLA AND DON SKRDLA, Stuart, are shown here with their champion and reserve champion Holsteins. Both boys belong to the Green Meadows 4-H club at Stuart.

SEAL LUEBKE, PAGE, a member of the Eagle Hustlers 4-H club is shown here with her blue ribbon Guernsey. Seal was also named champion showman. In the background is Randy Colman.

RANDY COLMAN AND LEONARD BUTTERFIELD are shown here with their pair of Guernseys which were selected as the best pair in the dairy division at the Sandhills Show at Newport.

MEMBERS OF THE INMAN METHODIST CHURCH gathered last Saturday to take part in the annual Methodist church hay-raising. The church fronts 114 acres of hayland south of Inman. Members of the crew are shown here enjoying a noon meal furnished by the ladies of the church. Approximately 100 tons of hay were put up this year by the volunteer crew.