O'Neill and Area Schools Open Football Season This Weekend

O'Neill High

Coach Jake Hawley looks for a tough game Friday night when the Eagles meet Valentine on the opponents field at 7:30 p.m.

For the convenience of those planning to attend the game, Valentine is about 110 miles from here.

Last year when the O'Neill team played Valentine, it was a hard, fast game with plenty of thrills, ending with a 0-0 score. There were several threats during the game to O'Neill's opening of an undefeated season.

Coach Hawley has named the following players for his probable starting lineup: Jack McGinn, senior, qb; Curt Larson, co-captain, rb; Jerry Kilcoen, senior, lb; Don Havranek, freshman, rh.

Others looking good in scrimmage and who will see plenty of action this year are Ivan Hurley, end; Ken Peterson, guard, and Charles Hill, tackle. All are freshmen.

Terry Kurtz, still out with a sprained knee, may be lost for the entire season. Roland Johnson is out for the year due to a fractured ankle.

The Cards, with some fair-sized backs and linemen, hope to be able to maintain their usual steamroller ground game and also hope to bolster their air attack as both quarterbacks have been throwing in practice.

Probable starters for SMA are: Tom Wanser, le, Terry Tomjack, lt; Lynn Gallagher, lg; Cal Peter, c; Rich Pongratz, rg; Mike Kamphaus, rt; Owen Donohoe, re; Jim Spitzberger; qb; Steve Higgins, hb; Ray Belina, fb, and Gene Shoemaker, hb.
