Talent Night Set
For March 25—
The regular monthly meeting of the Eagle Creek 4-H club met Sunday, February 26, at the home of Betty Lou Curran. After a covered dish luncheon, the meeting was called to order by the president, Doris Sterns. The roll call was a suggestion by each member for future roll calls. Some good suggestions were made. The club decided to have its talent night program and box social on Saturday evening, March 25, at the Benson schoolhouse, district 224. It was decided to have a practice on Sunday afternoon, March 19, at the schoolhouse. Janet Hull gave her report on "Nebraska's Wild Life and Natural Resources," which she had given at the public speaking contest in O'Neill. The next meeting place was not decided.—By Betty Lou Curran, news reporter.

Hixson's Bull 3d In Bassett Sale

CHAMBERS—Many Hereford breeders of the Chambers community were in Bassett Saturday to attend the Hereford sale and show. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, C. V. Robertson, Elwyn Robertson, George Rowse, Ray Hoffman, Vern Sageser, Vernon Hixson, Ed Eisenhauer and C. F. Small and son.

The grand champion bull was consigned by Ralph Prill and sons, of Page and was bought by Art Rowse and son, of Burwell, for $1,700. Harry Van Horn, of Page, showed the reserve champion, Vernon Hixson, of Chambers, sold the third bull for $390.

Miss Rasmussen Feted At Pre-Nuptial Shower
—CHAMBERS—A pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Geneva Rasmussen was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leo Adams. A program of songs was presented. The following took part: Jeanette Gibson, Carolyn Adams, Lysa Tange-man, Louanne Eisenhauer and Ruth Adams.

The ladies of the Baptist missionary society served lunch. Miss Rasmussen's marriage will take place in May to a Denver, Colo., man. She is employed in Denver.

Other Chambers News
Mr. and Mrs. William Jutte held a farm sale at their home northeast of town Wednesday, February 22. It is reported that the crowd was one of the largest to attend a public sale in this community. The prices received were "very satisfactory." Col. Ed. Thorin, of Chambers, was the auctioneer. The Lutheran Ladies Aid served the lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Jutte moved the next day to the new home they have purchased in Chambers. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hoffman and daughter, Donniss, who have been living in the house the Juttes purchased moved Friday to the Jutte farm.

Mrs. Roy Howard and son, Robert Wallace, of Scottsbluff, came Tuesday, February 21, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wintermote and other relatives. They went from here to Lincoln to visit a few days before going on to Stockton, Calif., to join her husband. They will make their home in Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor and Kenneth drove to Omaha Tuesday, February 21. James Platt made a business trip to Sioux City last Thursday, returning by way of Norfolk and bringing Mrs. Platt home from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Robertson attended a registered Hereford sale at Valentine Monday, February 20. While there they purchased the grand champion bull of the show Via Domino 34th. The purchase price was $2,075. He was consigned by S. R. McKelvie, of By the Way Ranch, at Wood Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayne Grubb and children moved the first of the week to the place owned by Mrs. Anna Albers, 10 miles southeast of Chambers, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hixson and sons. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brittell and Dewey, of Neligh, will move to the place vacated by the Grubb family, which they purchased some time ago. They expect to move this week. The Hixson family is moving to Imperial where they will be employed on a ranch.

A new safe was installed last week in the office of the Ford Motor Co.

Visit Melenas—
Last Thursday Mrs. Bessie Kreyck and son, Otto, of Niobrara, and Mrs. Ed Vach, of Verdelle, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Melena.

Mrs. Abart Hostess—
The Hi Jinx club plan to meet Friday, March 10, at the home of Mrs. Kieth Abart.

Lone Jay in First Year Sewing Class

The 212 South Fork club met at the Willie Erker home Friday evening, February 24. The meeting was called to order by the president, Joellyn Backus. The roll call was answered by naming a bird telling whether it was useful or harmful. Fifteen members were present and 2 new members were voted in. The pledge was repeated and we sang songs.

Donald and Marvin Strong are feeding baby beavers. Eleven members are taking the stocker - feeder project. Raymond Strong, Gale Holcomb, Joellyn Backus and Joe Hoffman are carrying garden projects. All of the girls and one boy are working on first year sewing.

Gary and Gale Holcomb have purebred Hereford heifers in the breeding heifers project. LeRoy Holcomb leads the stocker-feeder project. Joellyn Backus conducted the sewing class.

Mrs. Holcomb held the garden project. After the meeting we played games. Mrs. Ermer served a nice lunch of sandwiches, cake and cocoa.

Next meeting will be at the Gene Halsey home Friday, March 31.—By Jennie Vee Halsey, news reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moses were in Lincoln over the weekend visiting their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Moses and family.

CARD OF THANKS

WE WISH to thank our friends and neighbors for their words of sympathy and kindness at the time of the death and burial of our beloved father and brother, Ferdinand Krutz. We wish to thank the ladies who sang at the funeral and the floral offerings were deeply appreciated.
