Two Mass Choirs At Lutheran Hour Rally

The first rehearsals were held at Norfolk Sunday for the 2 mass choirs that will appear at the Lutheran hour rally to be staged in that city on April 16. The adult choir will be composed of some 280 voices from the various congregations in the Norfolk area. More than 200 were present for the first rehearsal.

Indications are that 360 will be in the children's choir. About 250 were present Sunday.

Each of the groups has been working on the numbers to be rendered and are supposed to have a working knowledge of the songs before they appear for finishing touches by the director, Henry Krenz, of Norfolk.

Three more rehearsals will be held, March 19, March 26 and April 9, before the final concert on April 16.
