Go to Omaha—
 Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ray left Sunday for Omaha where they will spend a few days.

J. W. Ressel, Wife Married 59 Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ressel, who live near their son, Harry E., in a duplex apartment in north O'Neill, Saturday marked their 59th wedding anniversary. The day was spent quietly and on Sunday the Harry Ressel entertained in a family dinner. Besides the honored guests, others present were Claessee Sullivan and family.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ressel were married at Ithaca on March 11, 1891. They lived in Saunders county on a farm until 1919, when they moved to the Plainview locality. In December, 1948, they moved from Plainview to O'Neill. Both are enjoying "good" health.

They have 2 sons and 2 daughters: Mrs. John Senseney, of Plainview; Curtis Ressel, of Plainview; Mrs. Frank Senseney, of Manson, Wash.; and Harry E. Ressel, of O'Neill.
 One of the topics at the anniversary dinner was comparing the Tuesday, March 7, storm to previous blizzards. Both were agreed that this year's storm was more severe than any they had ever known with the exception of the anuary 12, 1888, storm.
 "There were no storm warnings in those days, temperatures were much colder, and I believe the '88 blizzard was a worse storm," the elder Mr. Ressel said.

Robert Kurtz Is Renamed P-TA Head

Robert Kurtz was elected to head the Parent-Teachers association for another year at the Monday night, March 13, monthly meeting. Other officers are: Mrs. Vernon Tietsoot, vice-president; Mrs. Florence Schultz, secretary; Larry Johnson, treasurer. Kurtz and Johnson are carryover officers from 1949. Mrs. Tietsoot and Mrs. Schultz are new officers.
 Members of the Ford's park committee for 1950 are: Raymond Eby, Arthur Dexter and Mrs. H. E. Asher. These are appointive.

It was mentioned at Monday's meeting that the Boy Scouts have tentative plans for building in Ford's park this year.
 Entertainment consisted of a 1-act play, "Hit or Miss," directed by Robert Nicholas. Cast included Claude Cole, Don Wagon, Marilyn Holsclaw, Don Beckwith. Student director was Alice Scofield.
 On the lunch committee were Mrs. Ira George, Mrs. Florence Schultz, Mrs. Robert E. Carson, Mrs. W. B. Gillespie, Mrs. D. C. Schaffer, Mrs. Paul Petrow. St. Patrick's day decorations were featured.

St. Patrick's Affair Is Postponed
 The dinner and entertainment which was to have been held at St. Mary's on St. Patrick's day has been postponed indefinitely. Unfavorable weather and blocked roads have offered obstacles to the preparations.
 Mrs. Merle Hickey, who had accepted the chairmanship for the affair, expresses appreciation to the many workers who had pledged help. She wants to announce that money donations will be accepted in lieu of this benefit for St. Mary's.
 The Sisters have purchased dormitory beds from Federal Housing in the amount of $350, and the friends of St. Mary's are anxious to help meet this bill.

James Merriman Helps Arrange Initiation
 James Merriman, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Merriman, of O'Neill, was in charge of arrangements for an informal initiation ceremony Friday night in the commerce building on the Creighton university campus and a formal initiation Sunday at the Fontenelle hotel.
 Beta Theta chapter of the international commerce fraternity, Delta Sigma Pi.
