LAUNDRY SPECIALIST TO DEMONSTRATE

Mrs. Xina Peterson, nationally recognized authority on home laundry methods, will be O'Neill Monday, March 27, where she will conduct free home ironing demonstrations at Consumers Public Power district.

Mrs. Peterson has had many years experience in home laundry problems and other home economics and has conducted research on methods and home laundry equipment.

She will bring to O'Neill home-makers many interesting and helpful hints on home laundry and will show how all ironing, from easy flat pieces, to frills and ruffles, can be ironed easily, quickly and perfectly with less work and in less time.

L. C. Walling, district manager, said one of her most sensational demonstrations is the complete ironing of a shirt in only 3 minutes.

Mr. Walling pointed out that the demonstration will be in progress all day at Consumers sales room and invites all local homemakers to take advantage of this opportunity to see the demonstration.

Fancy Ropers Have 12 Members—

The Fancy Ropers 4-H club met at the Harry Ressel place Saturday night, March 4. The meeting was called to order by the president, Elizabeth Schaffer, with all members present.

We received our books and material for our year's work. We have 12 members and all but one has Black Angus calves. We also have 2 sets of twins in our club. The twins are Donald and Ronald Ressel and Willard and Wilma Van-Buren. Our leader is Mrs. Louis Miner. Our next meeting will be held at the Schaffer home. We also had visitors. Our meeting closed with a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Harry Ressel.—By Willard Van Buren, news reporter.
