

Atkinson 3d Ward At Half-Strength

Galyen were victors in the board of education race. Galyen, backed by both factions, won 227 votes; McKee, a Citizens candidate, 236. Unsuccessful school candidate was Robert Horner, Peoples party, with 215.

Smallest Voter Turnout In Years At Stuart

STUART—This westernmost Holt county town of Stuart usually expects 200-to-400 voters at the polls in the municipal elections. Not so this year. A scant 136 "regulars" turned out. But the formality was there, anyway. There had been caucuses and there were 4 candidates for 2 vacancies on each the village board of trustees and board of education.

Results:
J. G. Brewster, Citizens candidate, defeated Carl Bernt, Taxpayers candidate, for town council, 79-59; Mark Nelson, Taxpayers party, bested Walter Smith, Citizens party, 73-44.
T. E. McGuire outsped all other candidates by collecting 102 votes and was returned to the board of education. Ernest Dodd managed 80. The unsuccessful school candidates were Ward Flanigan, with 41, and Stanley Cobb, with 29.

Tuesday's turnout of the electorate was considered the smallest in many years.

Smith, Harper New To School Board

PAGE — Melvin Smith and Mrs. Maude Harper are new members of the Page board of education. They were elected over Harold Heiss and Lloyd Fusselman in Tuesday's municipal election.

The vote count:
Smith, 51; Harper, 45; Heiss, 41; Fusselman, 37. Heiss and Fusselman were up for reelection.

Elected to the village board of trustees were: Melvin Smith, with 53 votes; Lester Riege, 47; A. J. Braddock, 45. Smith and Riege are new members and Braddock is a carryover.

Unsuccessful town board candidates were Harry Harper, with 40; J. R. Russell, 26; J. E. Smith, 25.

Retiring members of the village board are Jerome Allen and P. E. Nissen.

Brown Polls Most Votes at Chambers

CHAMBERS—Tuesday's village election was a quiet affair. Elected to the village board of trustees were Walter Brown, with 77 votes; Kenneth Werner, with 62, and W. D. Reninger, with 60.

Unsuccessful candidates were Glen Adams, with 55, and Ed Thorin, with 43. Thorin is retiring from the board and for the past several years has served as chairman (mayor).

C. F. Gillette, Edwin Wink and James Platt each received a lone write-in vote.
Wink was named police magistrate, collecting 7 write-in votes.

Lynch Rejects Sunday Beer
LYNCH—A Sunday beer proposal, entitled "Sunday Saloons," dominated the scene Tuesday in the Lynch municipal election.

There were 104 votes cast "against" Sunday beer and 85 votes cast "for."
Elected to the board of education for a 3-year-term were Frederick King and Al Rosicky. Named to the town board for 2-year terms were Richard Ducker, Pat McMeen and Clayton Thompson. There was a "write-in" candidate that was successful for a 1-year-term on the town council. Jack Darnell fills the vacancy.

Wallace Courtney was elected police magistrate.
The beer issue helped stimulate election interest.

Emmet Returns First; O'Connor, McMillan Win

EMMET—As usual, the village of Emmet was the first Holt county locality to count its votes and announce to the world the victors.

James O'Connor, with 18 votes, and Cecil McMillan, with 20, were elected to the village board. Tom Perkins and Alex McConnell picked up 1 each.
Larry Tenborg was given 19 votes for post of village clerk. He will begin his second term. Homer Mullen, who resides in O'Neill but works in Emmet, received 1 vote.

O'Connor has been on the village board for 16 years, McMillan 12. All candidates were "write-ins."

Welke and Huffman Returned to Board

EWING—E. L. Welke and M. B. Huffman were returned to the Ewing town board for 3-year-terms in Tuesday's municipal election. Welke collected 79 votes, Huffman 54 in the balloting.

New member of the council will be Duane Fudge, who cornered 67 votes.

Other contestants were A. C. Gibson, with 52; William Wolf and Roy Wright, with 26 each. Fudge and Gibson become new members of the board of education. They replace E. A. Harris and Vic Marquardt. The count: Fudge, 77; Gibson, 71; Art Funk, 36; George Adrian, 35.

Inman Voting 'Quiet'; Only 29 Cast

INMAN—The Inman village election of April 4, 1950, was a "very quiet" affair. Only 29 votes were cast and candidates had no opposition except for a handful of stray "write-ins."
Re-elected to the village board of trustees were I. L. Watson, with 28, and F. E. Keyes, with 29. Renamed to the board of education were K. F. Smith, with 29, and Chris Reimers, with 24.

Airport Improvement Would Cost $2,500

Members of the O'Neill city council met in special session Wednesday, March 29, to hear civil aeronautic officials from Lincoln give suggested improvements for the municipal airport.

The suggested improvement program would cost in the neighborhood of $2,500, according to Mayor H. E. Coyne.

Aeronautic officials suggested to the council they cut upkeep expenses by doing away with 2 of the 4 runways. Suggested improvements would be repairing the hangar, insulating it making it possible to be worked in the year around. No official action has been taken on the airport improvement, Mayor Coyne said.

Today, the hangar at the airport, damaged as a result of the historic storm of March 7, has not been repaired. Mayor Coyne said he estimated the hangar's damage at $150.
