TAVERNS STRIVE
 FOR PUBLIC
 APPROVAL
 The tavern owners of the state are to be commended for their efforts to reach a new high level of operation.
 The people of the community appreciate these efforts to keep taverns clean, wholesome and above reproach—to eliminate sales to excessive drinkers and to minors.
 For over 11 years the brewing industry has been developing and following a program of education aimed at keeping retailers informed of the legal and social requirements for clean, lawful operation. This program has been beneficial to the industry, the retailer and the general public.

 H. E. COYNE, Mayor.
 O. D. FRENCH, City Clerk.

October 21, 1949
 Council met as per adjournment from meeting of October 4th, 1949. Present: Mayor Coyne, and Councilmen Rooney, Ray, Hickey and McCarville. Absent:
 Uhl and Corkle. At 2:00 p.m.
 Mayor called Council to order.
 Motion by Ray, seconded by Hickey, that the Council proceed to open bids on contract for new outfall sewer. Motion carried.
 The Council proceeded to canvass the bids submitted, and the bid of Diamond Engineering Company, of Grand Island,

Nebraska, was the only bid submitted. This bid, being in excess of the Engineer's estimate for the work and materials.
 Motion by Ray, seconded by Hickey, that the bid of the Diamond Engineering Company, of Grand Island, be rejected for the reason that the same exceeded the Engineer's estimate of cost of the work. The motion being put to a vote, the same was carried.
 Motion by Rooney, seconded by Ray, that the certified check of the Diamond Engineering Company, accompanying their bid, be returned. Motion carried.

 by Hickey, that the City Engineer be authorized and instructed to revise his estimate for the proposed outfall sewer improvement, and submit a new estimate therefor. Motion carried.
 Discussion was had with the City Engineer concerning the previous estimate placed by him on the cost of the outfall sewer improvement, and the matter of revision of the Engineer's estimates, and the Engineer submitted a revised estimate thereon.
 Motion by Rooney, seconded by Hickey, that the City Council approve plans and specifications and report and revised estimate submitted by the Engineer, Donald Price, covering the proposed improvement to the outfall sewer voted by the Resolution adopted September 16th, 1949.

April 15 is the closing date for signing farm plans for the agriculture conservation program.
 "Since sign-up meetings have been held, it is now the responsibility of each farmer to see that he is signed," chairman of Harry E. Ressel, chairman of the Holt county Production and Marketing administration. "We wish to call to your attention that the county office will be open on Saturdays up to and including April 15," he added.
 Checks on the 1949 program are now coming into the county.
 Over 500 farmers have been paid in the last week. The remaining payments are anticipated at an early date, as there are several hundred more that are cleared for payment at this time.
 The past few days before spring field work starts and the roads have opened up in most sections of the county many farmers have been calling at the office.
